Won't You Be My Valentine?

VALENTINE EXCHANGES FROM festively-decorated boxes like this heart-shaped container at the Vernon grade school will be the high point of the day today in the city's elementary schools Here Dennis Hunt, second-grader at Vernon, glances over the shoulder of Ivy Lee Iversen at a Valentine she is reading The exchange today will be a new experience for Ivy Lee who is a first-grader Historians are not sure how St Valentine's Day originated Although no less than seven St Valentines are on the records, only two would seem eligible to claim the title of the patron saint of romance One was a physician named Valentine who, before being sent to his death because of his religious faith, cured his jailer's daughter of blindness and sent her a farewell note ending 'From your Valentine" The other was a bishop who is said to have defied orders by officiating at marriage ceremonies which were banned He, too paid with his life, and some authorities say he met death on Feb 14, AD 270, alongside the other St Valentine

Nehru Says Chiang Should Get Role in Formosa Talks

Pflimlin Out, Pineau Takes Over in Paris

Right-Wing Socialist Bidding for Backing; Mayer May Be Next

PARIS (AP)—Pierre Pflimlin abandoned his efforts to form France s 21st postwar government today and President Rene Coty asked Christian Pineau a right wing socialist to try Pineau said he would decide after conferring with his political associates

Should the Socialist decline former Premier Rene Mayer was expected to be Coty s next choice It was Mayer s split with Premier Pierre Mendes France like him a leader of the Radical Socialist (moderate) party which caused the overthrow of the Mendes France government on a vote of confidence Feb 5

Third Called

Pineau was the third man called on to help solve France s latest Cabinet crisis now in its 10th day Former Premier Antoine Pinay a conservative failed first in the search for National Assembly support

There was considerable doubt that Pineau would accept the President s request The Socialists have refused to participate in recent cabinets although they voted solidly for Mendes France This was expected to work against any attempt of the party to secure the necessary outside support

Pflimlin went to Elysee Palace before dawn today to tell Coty he could not line up enough Assembly backing The President summoned Pineau soon after

Led French Underground

Pineau is a 50 year old former bank clerk lawyer, labor secretary and wartime resistance leader who was arrested twice by the Nazis Released from prison camp in 1945 he became food minister in Gen Charles de Gaulle s postliberation provisional government He was elected to the Assembly in 1945 and later served as public works minister in four governments and finance minister in one With the rest of the socialists he supported Mendes-France in pushing through the Assembly the Paris treaties approving German rearmament

EVACUEES REACH FORMOSA. Just in from the Tachen Islands, these evacuees are rushed through the port city of Keelung by truck to temporary quarters Since their arrival under the protection of the 7th Fleet of the U S the remaining Nationalist Chinese have been evacuated and the 7th Fleet will now resume normal operations '

Opposes Reds On Excluding Nationalists

Britain Follows Up With Cease-Fire Call As Prelude to Parley

LONDON (AP)—Indian Prime Minister Nehru came out today for Nationalist China s participation in any international conference on the Formosa issue Britain, holding a similar view urged a quick cease fire as the prelude to such a parley.

France lined up with Britain and the United States in criticism of Soviet Foreign Minister V M Molotov s proposal for a 10-power conference that would exclude Chiang Kai-shek s Chinese Nationalists A Foreign Ministry spokesman in Paris said 'it is not possible that this proposition could produce any concrete results '

Nehru made his position clear as he headed home from a two-week visit in London He told reporters at the airport a Formosa conference is still under consideration It "obviously cannot exclude any party concerned," he said

A few hours later a British Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen

'Her majesty s government believes that it would be an advantage to work for an end to the fighting in advance of a conference should there be an agreement to hold a conference An end to the fighting would improve the chances of a conference succeeding"

The British ambassador in Moscow, Sir William Hayter, is still exploring with the Russians the idea of a Formosa parley, the spokesman said. He added, however

"We wish to make it clear that the contacts with the Soviet government on the basis of their proposal should not be construed as committing us to a conference as a means of bringing about a settlement of the question to the exclusion of other methods "

The United States and Britain have made it clear they will not participate in a Formosa conference from which the Chinese Nationalists are barred Nehru said, however 'hat "I am not aware that Britain has rejected" the Telephone Co. Plans Building On Leader St.

Will House Concern's Division Engineering, Administrative Offices

A new $200 000 multi - purpose building for the General Telephone Co of Ohio will be constructed on Leader St this summer Claire E Williams, president, announced today

The new building will be used to replace quarters rented at 198 N Prospect St which company officials stated are inadequate for expanding operations in this area

Near Tecumseh Plant

A one story structure, the new building will occupy a site about one half block north of Tecumseh Products Co Construction is expected to be completed in October

The building will encompass more than 16 000 square feet of floor space and will house the company s Central Division administrative and engineering offices It will provide facilities for maintenance and testing of telephone equipment and apparatus as well as storage space for materials and supplies

The new establishment will function as a service center for Marion and nearby communities and from it will be dispatched personnel concerned with maintenance of service and extensions of plant throughout the area

Storage Garage

Along side of the new building there will be a storage garage with capacity of 48 company vehicles The company will also provide parking space for employes at the building site

Approximately 70 employes will report at the new building when completed

Company officials stated that this structure had been contemplated for some time as a part of the company s program for expansion in the greater Marion area

The architect for the new project is Charles W Oborn 244 Windsor St

Expects U.S. Help

Chiang To Defend Remaining Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Generalissimo Chiang Kai - shek showed iron determination today to hold the rest of the Chinese Nationalists off - shore islands and made it plain he expects the United States to help him fight for them, if the Chinese Communists attack

'In no case ' he asserted, 'would the strategic islands of Quemoy and Matsu be abandoned '

Chiang met newsmen at Nationalist headquarters here after the Reds' Peiping radio triumphantly announced the 'liberation ' of the Tachen Islands, evacuated by the Nationalists last week with the help of the U S Navy s 7th Fleet Peiping boasted it had placed Red soldiers on vantage grounds for liberating Taiwan (Formosa) and other islands off the China coast "

(A later Chinese Communist broadcast, heard in San Francisco, charged that inhabitants of the Tachens, Yu Shan and Pishan islands had been 'abducted" by Nationalist troops 'assisted by American armed forces)

'Inhabitants Abducted'

A later Chinese Communist broadcast heard in San Francisco charged that inhabitants of the Tachens, Yu Shan and Pishan islands had been 'abducted" by Nationalist troops "assisted by American armed forces '

Chiang smiled contentedly as he faced the largest news conference here since the Nationalists fled the mainland in 1949

"You newsmen fear the islands will not be jointly defended ' he said softly. 'But I think the matter is very clear "

Chiang referred to Quemoy and Matsu specifically in written replies to questions submitted by newsmen He added informally

As a matter of fact whether Kinmen (Quemoy) and Matsu will be defended is very clear to us, and to the Communists very clear "

Quemoy Shelled

The windup of the evacuation operation of the Tachens was punctuated by three hours of Communist shelling of Quemoy, 120 miles across the Strait of Formosa, on Sunday morning

The Nationalists Military Information Service said it was the largest artillery exchange at Quemoy since the Tachens withdrawal began, with the Reds pouring in over 59 shells from Amoy Port and receiving "a heavy retaliation barrage ' in return

Bucyrus Barn, Contents Burn

BUCYRUS—Twenty-five head of dairy cattle, including 10 registered Holsteins, and 12 tons of hay and alfalfa were destroyed in a barn fire Saturday about 1 30 p m at the Walter App farm six miles east of Bucyrus on Route 30 N

Firemen from the Tri-Township Fire Department were able to prevent the flames from spreading to a nearby tool shed and corn crib The roof of the barn had collapsed by the time firemen arrived, they reported

The barn a 35 by 75 foot building was estimated at a loss of about $5 000 by one fireman The barn and its contents burned to the ground Part of the loss was covered by insurance

Firemen said the fire was apparently started by defective wiring

A neighbor noticed the fire in the barn which is situated about three-fourths of a mile from the App home and called the county sheriff s department, which in turn notified firemen

U.N.'s Council Okays Debate On Cease-Fire

UNITED NATIONS N Y (AP)—Russia declared today that no useful purpose would be served by U N discussion of a cease-fire on the coastal islands in the Formosa Strait

Soviet Delegate Arkady A Sobolev told the 11-nation U SN Security Council that a bigger question has to be considered — that question is to lessen tension "

Sobolev made his declaration in explaining his vote against placing on the council s agenda a New Zealand proposal to seek a cease-fire The council overrode Soviet

Plane Missing Near Rome, 29 Are Feared Lost

Africa-Bound Airliner Hunted; 4 Americans On List of Passengers

ROME (AP)— Ground, sea and air searchers combed a fog-shrouded arc north and west of Rome today seeking the wreckage of an Africa-bound Belgian airliner feared to have crashed with 29 persons aboard

The 21 passengers included four Americans, three Belgian children and Marcella Mariani, Italy s 19-year-old beauty queen of 1953, who was making her first flight

The four engine DC6 of Sabena Airlines vanished early last night after reporting it was over Viterbo, 40 miles north of Rome The pilot said he expected to land at the capital s Ciampino Airport in 20 minutes but radio contact was broken in the middle of a transmission from the plane four minutes later

Sabena s Rome manager Alfred Blum and a high police official said they believed the plane had crashed into the Tyrrhenian Sea off the old Roman port of Civitavecchia, 30 miles northwest of the capital or in one of the many small lakes in the area

'I fear there are no survivors " Blum said

The aircraft had fuel to keep it in the air for only three hours after its last report It was en route from Brussels to the Belgian Congo

Snow Expected To Turn Into Sleet and Rain

Milder weather is in prospect for Ohio and this section of the country as a mam mass of frigid air which blanketed much of the nation last week moved eastward and out over the Atlantic

Snow which covered this area this morning and measured about an inch and a half was expected to change to sleet and then to rain later today. Low temperature for tonight is expected to be from 25 to 29 Forecast for Tuesday is cloudy with moderate temperatures

The new snow again created hazardous driving conditions in the city and the county Reed Ours, county engineer reported his crews were out with plows clearing the north and south roads of drifts and recindering intersections He said the roads were in pretty good condition until the new snow started State highways also

Murder Trial Of Phenix City Bosses Begins

Two Former Officials Before Jury in Death Of Attorney General

BIRMINGHAM Ala (AP) — With their own lives in the balance, two former Phenix City bosses face trial today for the murder of a crusading crime fighter whose death smashed the once-mighty racketeering empire there

Arch Ferrell 37 year old former circuit solicitor, and Albert Fuller, 35 a colorful ex-chief deputy sheriff are charged with first degree murder in the June 18 shooting of A L Patterson Democratic nominee for state attorney general

Murder in Alabama is punishable by death in the electric chair

May Seek Delay

There were last-minute indications that Ferrell s attorneys might have abandoned plans to ask for continuance of his trial No such request has yet been made They had said they probably would seek a delay because of the absence of a third defendant former Alabama Atty. Gen Si Garrett

The former state official who would have wielded his office to Patterson last month if he lived is undergoing mental treatment in a Galveston Tex hospital No date has been set for his trial

Garrett was in Birmingham the night Patterson was slain 160 miles away but the state alleges he took part in a murder conspiracy Ferrell has said he was talking long-distance with Garrett at the time of the killing

Share Equally in Guilt

In Alabama accessories are considered equally guilty with the person who actually does the killing The state has never disclosed which defendant it accuses of firing the murder weapon

Patterson a 59-year-old former

Schenley Named In Anti-Trust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty 'Gen Brownell today filed an antitrust suit against Schenley Industries Inc , charging it made illegal acquisitions of stock in Park & Tilford Distillers Corp

The civil action against Schenley one of the 'big four" in the whisky business was brought in the federal district court at Wilmington, Del

It asks for court orders requiring Schenley to divest itself of the Park & Tilford stock and requests that the court meanwhile enjoin Schenley from voting the stock ' or in any way attempting to exercise control" of Park & Tilford.

Peiping Press Hails Russians

LONDON (AP)—The Chinese Communists said today Soviet support was encouraging them in their campaign to take Formosa Peiping radio broadcast an editorial in the Peiping People s Daily government newspaper saying

"The Soviet people are always our most reliable and faithful friends

'The righteous support given us by the Soviet government and people in our struggle to liberate Taiwan (Formosa) and safeguard Asia gives us great encouragement and confidence in victory

Commenting on the fifth anniversary of the Chinese Soviet alliance the newspaper said

The treaty gave the war mongers a warning that they will certainly meet their doom if they dare unleash a war against the Sino-Soviet alliance "

Arends Lauds Administration

U.S. Foreign Policy Gets Results, GOP Told Here

The United States is closer to insuring peace today than at any time since the outbreak of World War II Rep Leslie C Arends of Illinois Republican Party 'whip " in the House told Republicans attending the annual Lincoln Day dinner at the YMCA Saturday night

Arends said the foreign policy of this country under a Republican administration has changed from one of vacillation and uncertainty to one of firmness and definite direction

HE SAID we have taken the offensive in the cold war and displaced Soviet Russia on the defensive He added that this country once again is beginning to have government of by and for the people 'after a lapse of 20 years under New Deal-Fair Deal Democratic rule "

Speaking before nearly 200 persons Arends compared the Eisenhower administration with that of Abraham Lincoln He said 'the Republican Party is called upon to perform an historic role '

He said the party is engaged in a reconstruction period at the present time trying to repair the damage wrought by the New Deal-Fair Deal misrule '

MUCH HAS BEEN done in two years he said but much more remains to be done Arends called President Eisenhower a man who believed in the Constitution and who did not feel it was the 'strait-jacket against which the New Dealers-Fair Dealers complained "

'The shameful era of circumventing the Constitution is ended,

Deadline Arrives

Barrage of Last-Minute Bills To Flood Assembly

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — "Speak now or forever hold your peace, or at least until the 102nd General Assembly meets in 1957 "

That was the word to Ohio s 169 legislators today This is the final day for introduction of bills in the 101st General Assembly

A barrage of bills is expected to greet legislators as they meet tonight Not that there has been any shortage of bills so far, 904 had been introduced when both houses started the weekend recess last Thursday. That's only 274 short of the 1953 record when lawmakers had until March 30 to submit proposed laws.

The deadline day traditionally produces more than 100 bills it brought in more than 200 in 1951

This is the first time in 18 years the Senate has observed a deadline the House always has The Senate s aim in observing the deadline says Majority Leader C Stanley Mechem (R - Athens), is to eliminate much unnecessary minor legislation

The house meets tonight at 7 30 p m —30 minutes early—to get a flying start on the expected blizzard of bills The Senate which expects to receive 75 to 80 bills tonight, meets at 8

About 30 House and Senate stenographers have been pounding out today's bills all during the weekend some worked Sunday to help legislators beat the deadline

After the gavel falls on today's sessions the lawmakers will turn their attention to hearings on the more worthy bills

Fireman Hurt In $800 Blaze Near Nevada

NEVADA — A Nevada fireman was injured in a one and one-half hour fight against a blaze at the Harry Schauweker farm home two and one half miles northeast of Nevada, early Sunday

Warren Norris the Nevada fireman, was hurt when the upstairs floor gave way while he was fighting the fire He was treated by a Bucyrus physician and his injuries were reported as "not serious "

Nevada firemen who arrived at the fire scene in record time fought the fire in zero temperature and kept the fire loss at a low of $800 The loss is covered by insurance, Fire Chief Cecil Heinlen said

An overheated stove pipe which ran through the upstairs floor caused the blaze, Chief Heinlen said

Summoned shortly after midnight Saturday, Nevada firemen arrived a few minutes later at the Schauweker farm Seeing the extensiveness of the fire and a limited water supply, the Nevada firemen summoned the Sycamore fire department and the Sycamore fire chief D M McBride Although the Sycamore department was not needed, the firemen stood by with a water tank truck

The fire was discovered by Schauweker who went to a neighbor s house to phone the Nevada department

Hoover's Group Reports

Bigger Role Requested For Political Appointees

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hoover Commission recommended last night that all government jobs carrying the responsibility of making or defending administration policies should be filled by political appointees

And it urged that Congress create a new 'senior civil service" of career administrators who would be "politically neutral" and who would survive a shift in White House control Other suggestions were for some revision of "the peculiar rights of veterans" in holding federal jobs and for salary boosts in high-level jobs

The commission of seven Republicans and five Democrats headed by former President Herbert Hoover, in a report on "personnel and civil service," ignored a recommendation by its task force on personnel for an investigation of the government s loyalty-security program.

A 10-man group headed by President Harold W Dodds of Princeton University, which did much of the spadework for the commission s report called for an official inquiry 'without delay," and it said

"Any discussion of the prestige of the public service and the morale and efficiency of federal employes today must take due notice of the security problem "

The commission itself made no reference to the security program. Without mentioning that issue specifically, Hoover said in a letter of transmittal to Congress that the recommendations did "not neces-

Marion Area Scouts Prepare for Show on March 6

Troops, Packs and Posts In 4 Counties To Join In 'Scout-O-Rama'

Boy Scouts in the Harding Area Council are busy these days working up displays for the 1955 Scout-O-Rama which will be held March 6 in the Marion Veterans Memorial Coliseum.

Each of the 84 Boy Scout, Cub Scout or Explorer units in the four - county district comprising Marion, Morrow, Crawford and Wyandot Counties has been invited to participate.

MOST OF THEM will take the opportunity to show their stuff, Scout-O-Rama committee members said today

Among the exhibits will be cooking, firebuilding, woods pioneering, handicrafts, first aid, nature and Indian lore, rope work, and conservation

Other displays will dramatize the aims of Scouting or its history. Some will show the various paths to advancement in the Scout movement or illustrate the services offered by Scouts

Each unit participating will be given an area at least 10 feet square to set up a booth.

THE BOOTHS will be judged by a committee of visiting Scout leaders and prizes will be awarded the top three exhibits in the Cub, Scout, and Explorer brackets Presentation of the prizes will be made by Chet Long Columbus radio and television news commentator.

A half-hour pageant on the history and ideals of Scouting will conclude the show which is scheduled to run from 2 to 4 30 p.m on Sunday, March 6.

Tickets are now being sold by Scouts throughout the council.

Chairman of the show this year is James Teitelbaum, neighborhood Scout commissioner of Marion.

He is being assisted by Dr. R. T. Sen. Neuberger, Gov. Stratton on Program at OWU

DELAWARE — Oregon's U. S. senator, Richard L. Neuberger, and Illinois' governor, William G. Stratton, will be the keynote speakers at the seventh annual Democratic and Republican Days at Ohio Wesleyan University in March.

The names of the speakers were announced by Prof. William H. Eells, acting director of the Ben A. Arneson Institute of Practical Politics, which sponsors the yearly political days on the campus.

Senator Neuberger, author and journalist who recently became Oregon's first Democratic senator in 40 years, will set the tone for Democratic Day, Monday, March 14, with a major address before Ohio Wesleyan's 2,000 students, faculty members and visiting party leaders.

A week later, Monday, March 21, Gov. Stratton, a former U. S congressman and state treasurer of Illinois, will deliver the major address at the Republican Day assembly in Gray Chapel.

Several party leaders will be on hand for each day. One of the main purposes of the Republican and Democratic days is to give students an opportunity to meet and confer with national, state and local party leaders so that they will be encouraged to take an active interest in the party of their choice.

CASH TRANSACTION

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP) — A customer asked Tom Holden, manager of a help-yourself grocery, for three cans of cold beer. While Holden was in the refrigerator getting it, somebody slammed the door shut and held it. Holden hammered at the door When he finally got out, he found that what his customer really had wanted was the cold cash in the register

Mother of Triplets In Galion Attempts New Work System

GALION — One of Galion's busiest households is at the Charles Willyard home where a workable schedule is being tried out for the family into whose home recently were born triplets

Mrs. Willyard and one of the babies, Jean, were released from Galion Community Hospital Sunday, and the other two babies will be released in a few days While all are healthy babies, the two smaller babies, Joan and John, were left in the hospital a while longer.

The triplets were born Friday morning, Feb 4 in the hospital and were a complete surprise to the parents who were not even expecting twins.

"I think it will be a little easier to get adjusted to a working schedule by bringing home one baby at a time, but I am anxious to have them all home," Mrs Willyard commented today.

The Willyards have received a number of gifts for their new babies, from merchants and friends, for which they are highly appreciative. Extra bassinets were loaned to the couple for the two babies they were not prepared to receive

The Willyards have two other children at home, Charles, 4, and James, 2

Couple Buys Home For $60 Monthly On New Rent Plan

A young couple, just starting married life, could see nothing but futility in paying rent, so they investigated our rental plan on mobile homes. They are now happily living in what, within a very short time, will be their own home.

They have two bedrooms, one double, one bunk, plus a studio couch and can sleep six persons. The studio is beautifully upholstered and the beds have innerspring mattresses.

The trailer is well lighted, and well ventilated with a kitchen exhaust fan. There also is plenty of wardrobe space and sliding doors to insure complete privacy.

All the conveniences of a modern home are included in the purchase price: Dixie bottle gas range, double bowl sink, 8-cubic foot Kelvinator refrigerator and Duo-Therm heater.

A wrought iron table and chair set completes the living room area. A hot water tank is provided for the combination tub and shower bath as well as for the kitchen.

If you, too, are tired of paying rent and getting nothing in return, stop in at the Buckeye Trailer Court, 1015 North Main Street or phone 2-0708 and learn how your present rent can buy your own home.

Polish Native Deported After Crime Record

CLEVELAND (AP)—Felix F. Jochim, 49-year-old convicted burglar, was returning today to his native Poland after deportation from the United States, where he has spent the last 30 years.

Jochim, who lived in Youngstown, left New York and Paris last night, and was to fly to Warsaw on a Polish Airways plane.

Immigration officials here said they received travel documents a few weeks ago from the Communist government, enabling Jochim to become one of the few deportees allowed to return to Iron Curtain countries in recent years

Last week the Ohio State Highway Patrol near Circleville, Ohio, arrested Jochim as a suspicious person and said dynamite and burglar tools were found in his car.

Jochim was turned over to immigration agents, who had tried in vain to locate him in Youngstown after the travel papers came from Poland.

Deportation proceedings had been completed against Jochim while he was serving two years of a burglary sentence at the Western State Penitentiary of Pennsylvania, which released him in April 1953, on parole to the Cleveland immigration office.

Since his arrival in this country in 1914, Jochim has served four terms for burglary in Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

As he boarded the plane in Cleveland on the first leg of his journey, Jochim told immigration agents he did not want to go to Poland, and would prefer to remain here and face possible charges as an habitual criminal.

"I can beat that rap," he said. But he added he would probably become "a politician over there."

FISH SPANKS

SANDPOINT, Ida. (UP) — Harold Stokke tells of the big fish that spanked him before it got away. He says he hooked a big Kamloop trout in Pend Oreille Lake and reeled it in. The fish jumped into the boat, slapped Stokke where spankings are administered, and then flopped back into the lake and swam away.

Ike's Military Budget Backed By Rep. Vorys

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. John M. Vorys (R-Ohio) says President Eisenhower's military budget is adquate—a stand disputed by Rep Melvin Price, (D-Ill.) in a debate on Columbus Town Meeting yesterday. On the radio and television simulcast (WBNS and WBNS-TV) Price said proposed military spending is not enough.

The Ohio congressman gave four reasons why he is backing the Eisenhower budget.

These included: Need for mobile, flexible forces, involving less ground strength and more air and naval power; U.S. economic health; preparation of continental defense; scientific and technological advances, requiring less manpower.

Price said that economically "we haven't reached the point where we must pull in our horns of national defense."

The Illinois congressman said he believed scientific developments and new concepts of smaller, mobile forces, call for more, not less manpower.

Bill Would Deduct All Dental, Medical Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Oliver P. Bolton (R-Ohio) plans to file legislation today which would let taxpayers deduct all medical and dental expenses from their federal income tax returns.

Opponents of a similar bill, introduced by Bolton in 1953, said the measure would cut off too much revenue and possibly would be abused by taxpayers.

Under the present law, written by Congress last year, taxpayers may deduct medical and dental expenses which exceed 3 per cent of their income, as compared with 5 per cent allowed before revision.

Bolton said his bill, if passed, would give a taxpayer "real incentive to see his doctor or dentist before it is too late to save his health or teeth."

STORAGE WOES ENDED

NEW YORK (UP) — Petticoats add glamor to your wardrobe but create a storage problem. One solution is a new plastic "skirt toter." Made of clear vinyl with quilted plastic edging, the holder carries crinolines like a closed umbrella so that they take up a minimum of space. The holder is washable.

Reports from Poland indicate that artificial eyes are on the market and sailors bringing them in are selling them for high prices.

Grave Digger Held in Detroit Coed's Slaying

DETROIT (AP) Police say a 34-year-old former grave digger has confessed the vicious two-year-old assault-slaying of JoAnn Gillespie.

Inspector Edward Reilly said Richard Ballingall, 34-year-old Detroit beer store odd jobs man, admitted orally and in a formal statement yesterday that he beat and dragged the 18-year-old junior college coed into the alley near her home where her mutilated body was found Jan. 3, 1953.

Reilly said Ballingall admitted the crime—one of Detroit's most sensational in years — while police were quizzing him about the death of a woman described as his common-law wife, Cecilia (Sis) Stewart, 40.

Miss Stewart was found dead yesterday in a room she was sharing with a man who said he met her in a bar.

Reilly said Ballingal, a convicted sex offender, gave conflicting statements in confessions to detectives who questioned him for eight hours and to Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien.

Reilly described Ballingall's confession as "very good." O'Brien said he wasn't too sure of its accuracy.

Police said that, after confessing the crime, Ballingall took them to the scene and led them to within five feet of where the girl's ravished body had been found.

MEDICINE EASED

LONDON (INS) — The British are trying to make medicine-taking easier for the patient. For the theater-goer who finds a play a literal headache a new form of aspirin was unveiled at a London medical exhibition. This aspirin can be swallowed without a "chaser." It dissolves on the tongue, is said to be non-irritant and even tastes agreeable.

Where To Get the Money?

School Districts Struggle With Financial Problem

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Taxpayers are being asked to raise the money to build 370,000 new classrooms and pay one million more teachers.

The funds to pay the teachers will have to be in cash. New schools may be financed on borrowed money—but the debt will have to be met sometime.

In Washington, in the state capitals, in the local school districts the big question bing debated today is how to raise the money—whether higher taxes, more bond issues, more help from the federal government with the implication of more federal control.

Overcrowding Is Rule

It's a problem peculiar to the 1950s. At the start of the decade the school enrollment (because of the lower birth rate during the depression) was slightly under that in 1940. And then the deluge. The war governmental controls held postwar record baby crop years began the trek through the schools. Overcrowding became the rule.

The problem was aggravated from another angle. During the war governmental controls held down the building of new schools or the replacement of those becoming obsolete. So the rush of students—enrollment has risen 22 per cent in five years-found the nation actually behind on its school building program, even if the rising birth rate hadn't swamped it.

Finding the teachers—and the money to pay them—has many a school board worried, too. The teachers have their side of it: Inflation has worn away their take home pay, and many could make more at jobs in industry.

The Tax Foundation, a private, nonprofit research organization, in a survey issued today, reports that the average beginning salary of school teachers with a college degree is $3,115 in the nation's larger cities. "In rural areas," it adds, "salaries are generally below that level."

The foundation has studied the pay scales and hiring practices in 80 cities, or three fourths of those with populations exceeding 100,000.

It reports that pay for teachers with a bachelor's degree ranges from $2,400 for beginners in Birmingham, Ala., to $7,300 at the top of the heap in Newark, N. J. But the regional averages for beginners show that western cities pay the most ($3,500), and north central second best ($3,325), with the Northeast averaging $3,000 and the South $2,845.

Reflects Competition

Starting pay averages a little higher in all regions if you have a master's degree. If you have a doctor's degree, the average starting salary ranges from $3,412 in the South to $4,016 in the West. The foundation comments that the salary peak found in the West reflects the competition from the high salary levels in business and industry in western cities.

Pay increases are usually standardized. The foundation says "the Mediocre teacher receives the same salary increase as one whose performance is outstanding." In most places it takes 14 years to reach top pay.

Teachers' salaries make up about two thirds of total school operating costs, the foundation finds.

President Eisenhower says emergency school construction to meet the rush of new pupils will cost about seven billion dollars. He wants the foderal government to help with 200 million dollars in grants and 900 million in loans, and to back up local school bond issues with federal guarantees.

But that still will leave the chief headaches for the local school districts the teaching staffs and the taxpayers

Kitchen Safety Advice Offered To Cut Mishaps

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — Accidents in the kitchen, one of the most hazardous spots in the house, can be avoided. It just means a few everday precautions, says Helen Becker, rural health specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Some of her suggestions:

Turn handles of cooking utensils to the back of the stove.

Keep knives and other sharp instruments from children.

Use a safe step ladder to reach high shelves and other difficult storage places.

All electric appliances near the sink should be grounded.

Electric cords, switches and plugs should be in good condition.

Meteor Lights Up Texas Sky

Airport Tower Man Describes Fireball

TYLER, Tex (AP) — A fireball its weird green light casting a fiery glow over three men in an airport control tower, flashed like a 'huge electric arc" across the east Texas piney woods last night

It was apparently a meteor There were unconfirmed reports it exploded or hit the ground, but no evidence of it had been found

Information ndicated it was first seen here and disappeared some 60 miles south, near Lufkin But the Weather Bureau at Dallas got reports of people seeing its glow as far as Jackson Miss to the east and Mineral Wells in west Texas.

The most vivid account came from J N Aber a control tower operator at Pounds Field here Here's his story

'Around midnight this light seemed to pop out of the sky directly above us It looked like a huge electric arc It was greenish like the tip of a welder's torch

It was going due south There were three of us in the tower We of course had the lights on, but the room lighted up brilliantly It was a blinding light, the brightest I ever saw We all turned and watched it disappear to the south about 30 degrees above the horizon It looked like a football with a shodt tail It lasted just a second"

Reds Claim U.S. Planes Flew Over North Korea

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The Communists charged today that four Allied jets and one propeller-driven plane intruded over North Korea near the mouth of the Yalu River boundary of Red China Friday

An Allied spokesman denied knowledge of any intrusion but said the U N Command would investigate The charge was raised at a meeting of Communist and Allied secretaries of the Joint Korean Military Armistice Commission

Col Lo In-hi Communist secretary, charged that five Allied planes "flew from the south to the north along the (Koren west) coastline and intruded into the air above Sindo' at the mouth of the Yalu River between Red North Korea and Communist Chinese Manchuria

THEY'RE ALL IN THE OSCAR DERBY. Exchanging mutual congratulations after they were nominated for Academy awards in Hollywood are (left to right) Nina Foch, Humphrey Bogart Jan Sterling and Katy Jurado Bogart was nominated for the best actor award for his role as the fiendish Capt Queeg in The Caine Mutiny." Misses Foch, Sterling and Jurado were nominated for best supporting actress

Film Awards Due March 30

Crosby, Garland Rated Top 'Oscar' Contenders

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — An all-important factor — a split in the big studio vote — today made Oscar favorites of Bing Crosby, Judy Garland and the picture The Country Girl'

The nominations were witnessed Saturday night throughout the nation over NBC-TV, which will telecast the Academy Award finals March 30

Prior to the nominations Crosby the tipsy has been actor of 'The Country Girl and Marlon Brando the punchy pug of On the Waterfront' were rated neck-and-neck favorites

But the nominations presented Brando solid opposition from within his own studio Humphrey Bogart, Capt Queeg of "The Caine Mutiny" also was nominated Both "Waterfront' and "Caine" are Columbia pictures

Although academy voters try to forget old school loyalties in the selections it is only human that many of them vote according to their studio's product

That gives Crosby a slight edge in the top actor classification because he is Paramount's only entry Apparently the studio is behind him to a man which would explain the surprise absence of William Holden from the nominees Holden costarred with Crosby in "Country Girl"

The other top actor nominees are James Mason (A Star Is Born) and Dan O Herlihy (The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe')

A split studio vote which may help Bing could also work against Grace Kelly for the same picture Audrey Hepburn nominated for 'Sabrina' is also a Paramount entry Miss Kelly and Miss Garland also have been neck-and-neck favorites Other potent contenders are Jane Wyman (The Magnificent Obsession) and Dorothy Dandridge (Carmen Jones) Miss Dandridge is the first Negro ever nominated for the top feminine Oscar

'The Caine Mutiny' and "On the Waterfront may split the Columbia vote for the best picture award And again Country Girl' is the only Paramount entry The other two nominees are 'Three Coins in a Fountain' and 'Seven Brides for Seven Brothers"

Columbia probably will kill itself off in the supporting acting group with four of the five nominees "Waterfront' has three of them — Rod Steiger Lee J Cobb and Karl Malden Tom Tully first skipper of the USS Caine is another Columbia entry This leaves clear sailing for Edmond O'Brien a procuring press agent of 'The Barefoot Contessa'

Katy Jurado first Mexican-born actress ever nominated, is a slight favorite among supporting actresses She played Spencer Tracy's Indian wife in 'The Broken Lance" Jan Sterling and Claire Trevor both of 'The High and the Mighty," may hurt each other The other two nominees are Eve Marie Saint (On the Waterfront) and Nina Foch ('Executive Suite)

'Coexistence' Vital, Claims Ace Physicist

HAMBURG Germany (AP) —Otto Hahn German Nobel Prize winner and the first scientist to split uranium, urged the big powers last night to seek peaceful coexistence lest mankind "extinguish itself"

'Mankind is able today or will be able in the near future to extinguish itself" the atomic expert warned, declaring the big powers "must negotiate even if their ideologies are basically different"

Hahn spoke as one of a series of scientist-lecturers broadcasting over stations in West Germany Denmark, Norway and Austria

Describing the horrors of future war, Hahn said the explosion of 10 cobalt-coated hydrogen bombs could endanger continuation of human life, "no matter where they are dropped"

'A single hydrogen bomb like those possessed by the United States and the Soviet Union, could destroy cities like London New York or Berlin with a single blow, he asserted

Politics Produces Nothing

Not a single man in the newest Russian lineup knows the first principles of agricultural and industrial production. They are politicians, not producers.

They are, moreover, that modern political mutation that can be described as "despotic bureaucrat." They must fight the Russian people and one another for survival because their own survival is their only goal.

The more they seem to change, the more they will be the same for the simple reason that only the most ruthless stand any chance of survival at all.

If mankind needed proof that all power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely, the latest reshuffling of political figureheads to strike a balance in politics in the Kremlin should be enough.

There has been no time in Russia since the revolution when the Kremlin could command the confidence of the Russian producers. The counter-revolutionists who overthrew the original bolsheviks and set up a political dictatorship earned the reputation of terrorists at the outset. They have ruled by force.

All they ever have known how to practice is the barren, sterile maneuvering for power by politicians playing the game for the game's sake — and the loser gets a bullet in the brain.

They have interfered with every activity of Russian life in the effort to save themselves.

They have put political commissars in charge of everything; that is the one-party system. It is the only way politicians can be secure. They have substituted political security for the security of Russia.

This is no time to forget Stalin's political deal with Hitler that backfired and revealed Russia to be so paralyzed by politics it was unable to defend itself. The Russian people then rose up in patriotic fervor to save their soil. But even before the war was over, the politicians moved in again to pull back the troops before they could form any harmful ideas about saving themselves.

The Kremlin's plotters can produce nothing that the Russian people need or want. Its politicians do not understand the first principle of production.

They can plot and purge until doomsday and not lift Russia's standard of living an iota. Their obsession about politics has saddled a great nation with a historically faulty scheme that cannot work because the Russian people do not believe in it. Only the politicians believe in it.

What the world has been trying to make sense of since one figurehead stepped down and another politician was moved into his place a few days ago is simply another demonstration of the failure of a system that paralyzes the energy of producers with endless political intrigues.

Person to Person

Since 1949, when it was started, the Free Europe Committee Inc. has been one of the most powerful agencies of human freedom.

Its power has been derived from the fact it was a voluntary effort by free Americans to carry the message of freedom directly to captive populations.

It has been person-to-person propaganda.

Its success has been attested by the frantic opposition of the Communist conspiritors. The authoritarians are able to deal with attacks at the level of government, but attacks at the level of the governed frighten them. In no case are they able to claim popular support for their regimes. They rule by terror.

Radio Free Europe is the committee's most effective project. It beams broadcasts to Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

Until Feb. 22, a campaign to raise funds for this vital project will be conducted under the name "Crusade For Freedom." Donors will be asked to sign "freedom scrolls" and give "truth dollars."

Americans frequently ask, "What can I do about it?" when reminded of the menace of authoritarian rule to their own freedom and to freedom everywhere. Here is something that can be done about it, voluntarily.

Red Seniority

One of the speculations stirred by the latest rejuggling of the batting order in the Kremlin is the effect on Communist China.

The Red leader with the most seniority now is China's Mao Tse-tung, who popped into prominence as an Asiatic revolutionist 30 years ago and is still going strong. As No. 1 man in populous China, which dwarfs the population of the Soviet Union, Mao automatically has the prestige of numbers to back him up. Although only his Russian counterparts can claim possession of the industrial organization that could arm his masses, Mao undoubtedly has been keeping track of their recent admissions.

They have been confessing, in effect, that they are unable to provide both guns and butter for their own people and therefore must concentrate on guns. To a Chinese leader who has spent his life close to mass hunger, that is an admission of weakness, not a declaration of strength. Armament without a food supply is like guns without ammunition.

Perhaps Mao has heard of baseball, the game in which the batting order is rejuggled when the team is in a losing streak. The men in Moscow are rejuggled endlessly, but Mao Tse-tung stays on forever, the only world-renowned Red with the privilege of piling up seniority.

Eisenhower and Zhukov

By David Lawrence

Military Backgrounds Engender Mutual Respect

If it were left to just two men—President Eisenhower and Marshal Zhukov, the new defense minister in Moscow—there probably could be an era of peace and understanding in the world.

For there is an intensely human aspect to the friendship which developed in wartime between the commander-in-chief of the American and Allied forces in Europe and the commander-in-chief of the Soviet forces.

Long before Gen. Eisenhower became President he talked to intimate friends of his meetings in Berlin in 1945 with Marshal Zhukov. From the statements made this very week in Moscow to newspapermen by the new cabinet minister who will be in charge of all defense for Soviet Russia, it is evident that the friendship has not been forgotten by the Soviet leader.

Marshal Zhukov is a military hero in Soviet Russia and, if he alone were to decide on future policy, there would be much less to fear even though he has a military background. For, contrary to a rather curious impression that seems to have been fostered in pacifist quarters—where the word "militarism" is loosely used to describe a phobia to start fighting—the truth is military men usually do not want war and lean over backward to avoid it.

GENERALS WHO HAVE the responsibility of ordering young men to face death are often the last people to urge the use of war as an instrument of national policy.

If Marshal Zhukov could speak his own thoughts freely, he probably would say the same things that President Eisenhower has been saying against war. Actually, since Eisenhower has been in the White House, he has proved the very antithesis of the concept of a military man which has been so widely held.

Could these two men—Zhukov and Eisenhower—get together and talk things over? This concrete question was raised at the President's press conference this week, and he answered guardedly that he would have to take up such a proposal with his advisers.

Meanwhile, Marshal Zhukov in Moscow in an interview earlier this week with William Randolph Hearst, Jr. head of the Hearst group of newspapers, and Kingsburg Smith of the International News Service referred specifically to the two times he had been invited by Gen. Eisenhower to visit America and expressed the hope that his dream of coming here might some day be realized.

He said that he didn't think relations at the moment made it "suitable" for him to come at this time, but he hoped relations would improve.

What does all this mean? Plainly the rise of Marshal Zhukov is a significant development. Today, of course, he is an officeholder backed by the Communist party. He has to stick closely to their doctrine. If he came to the United States as an envoy of the present Communist regime, he would not get the same kind of reception as he might get if he were the elected representative of the Soviet people as a result of a free election.

THERE MAY COME a time when some spokesman of a free government which has overturned—perhaps with a bloodless revolution—the clique who rule Soviet Russia today, can visit the United States and be welcomed with trust. Such an occasion could arise if the people of the Soviet Union ever recovered their lost liberties. Today even a military hero in Moscow is the prisoner of Communist intrigue and Community-party supremacy. For every soldier of high rank obeys an existing regime implicitly. It is something imbedded in his training—a habit of obeying orders. That's why some of the other things that Marshal Zhukov said in his interview this week will be discounted as the "official line." He has talked about America also in the past year in phrases that suggest he had a Communist mentor write for him the views he expressed.

But the new situation in Soviet Russia could mean the eventual ascendancy of Marshal Zhukov to the top place. Since the death of Stalin, he has become the outstanding military man of the country, and his popular following cannot be overlooked by the politicians.

THE FACT THAT they risked putting him into the government at all must mean that he has achieved a position of such commanding strength that he could no longer be ignored as he was during the post-war years when Stalin gave him an obscure post in Odessa and kept him out of the limelight.

As between the theory that the downfall of Malenkov portends a tougher Soviet policy, with a threat of war, and the prediction that an era with some sort of effort to reach an understanding with the West is about to begin, this correspondent inclines to the latter concept and would not be surprised if the man who now plays a prominent part in such a peace plan is Marshal Zhukov himself.

Matusow Case Poses Problem

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The government has its hands full with Harvey Matusow, who says he would do anything "for a buck" and has just pulled a big switch.

With his own membership in the Communist party as background, the 28-year-old Matusow since 1951 has been testifying under oath before federal grand and trial juries and congressional committees about communism.

Now he swears under oath that the previous testimony he gave under oath was a lie. He says his switch now is a matter of conscience. He says he made a racket of being a witness, getting money and publicity for it.

IT MIGHT SEEM since Matusow now says he perjured himself, that the government without any difficulty could haul him into court instantly, use against him his own admission that he lied, and convict him of perjury.

It isn't that easy. Under the law the government can't convict a man for perjury unless it can prove, by witnesses or other evidence, that he lied under oath. His own statement under oath that he had lied under oath is not enough to convict him.

And that naturally raises a question — for the government a very important question: When did he lie, now or in the past?

Matusow swears now he gave false testimony in the trial of 13 second-string Communists convicted in New York and in the trial of a labor leader convicted in Texas of lying when he took a non-Communist oath.

Unless the government can prove that Matusow is perjuring himself now—and therefore that he told the truth in the trials—the 13 Communists in New York and the Southwest labor leader may get new trials.

If the government can't prove that Matusow was telling the truth in those trials —and therefore lying now — the Justice Department faces a question about its own operations:

Just how much effort did it take, before using Matusow as a witness against those 14 people, to be sure he was telling the truth?

Matusow joined the Communist party in 1947, was an FBI informer in the latter part of 1950, and, supposedly, although this has been questioned, was expelled in January 1951. He began his career as a professional witness later that year.

Truth in Photography

By TRUMAN TWILL

There have been more pictures than usual this winter, it seems, of clowns of both sexes pretending to enjoy skinny dips in ice-cold water, grinning happily although seated on ice with no insulation and rolling foolishly in the snow.

Except for professional models who perform these antics to push products, these people are touched in the head and deserve our sympathy. But they are only a few degrees more addled-pated than anyone else who does something irrational for a photographic gag.

The photographic gag is a standard part of the American way of life, but that does not signify an American must go along with it to prove he is as nutty as the gagsters.

It has been some time since a president of the United States has posed for a picture wearing clothing he would not wear under any other circumstances. Some progress is being made.

But now that presidents no longer put on Indian headgear, silly Texas hats, or pretend to be enjoying a bout with a wily trout when they are bored stiff, there are some other fake poses that have become too corny to strike any more.

Beautiful girls who do not know how to swim should quit posing in bathing suits. Far better to take pictures of the bathing suits and the girls separately, far, far better.

Attractive young women should no longer be depicted on cakes of ice, either in winter or summer. All of us can see ice whenever we get interested enough to look at it. Let's concentrate on the girls.

Animals in ludicrous costumes should not be submitted to this indignity, nor should people. Even a jackass would know better than to try this stunt.

Dowagers and young matrons out to make a fast buck by lending their aristocratic meins and names to advertising campaigns might repent of their ways while the spirit of reform is rampant.

This would be as good a time as any, moreover, to clean up some battered bromides in sports photography, such as will be coming along shortly in baseball and were worked to a frazzle last fall at the expense of football players.

Also there could be improvement in the absurd pretense that housewives — for advertising purposes —all look and dress like television dolls.

Photography is an art important enough to take itself seriously. The snide photographic practice of spoofing the public with misrepresentation is unworthy of the shutter snappers who carry it on.

Either they will maintain integrity, or they have no further claim on the attention of serious-minded people.

To return to those freaks lying on their bellies in the snow and splashing in ice water in midwinter —no photographer worth his hypo should dirty up his lens with such nonsense.

An honest lens louse would think first of the shock to the sensibilities of decent people who sleep under electric blankets from October to Memorial Day and die before he would betray their confidence in his integrity as a craftsman.

No kidding, was it really snow? Was it really ice water? Was it really winter? Were those really human beings?

Daily Bible Thought

"Our Father." — Matt. 6:9. The attitude of God's love toward a sinner is revealed in the parable of the Prodigal Son. All the bad boy had to do was quit his meanness and turn round and go back home. The father was looking for the sorry tramp and saw him while he was still a great way off. God is that kind of father.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Marion's one schoolhouse in 1828, although limited in capacity, served as a courthouse, meetinghouse for different religious denominations and it also housed the first political caucus ever held in Marion.

At that time a candidate for representative to the state legislature was nominated.

Here also convened the meeting for the organization of the Presbyterian Church of Marion. When the house was found too small to hold a crowd, the people withdrew to the "grove," a clean shady part of the same lot and adjoining woods well shaded with massive oaks.

Paying for Cokey

By Frank Tripp

I first wrote this as a memo to the woman who bred Cokey for us. Then I decided to make it an open letter for dog lovers to read—and for skeptics to disbelieve. If you don't like dogs, don't read it; you wouldn't understand.

Mrs. Alexander sent a Christmas card to Cokey and Cokey was happy to hear from her sponsor. The imp was only six months old the day it arrived but I'll swear she sniffed the source of the kind words with her sharp little nose.

Such a remembrance to "only a dog" made me better understand our precocious little friend and more appreciate how animals, as much as children, reflect breeding and affection in their obedience and intelligence. Cokey's every act and thought reveals her bringing up.

"Oh come now, don't pour it on so thick," I seem to hear you say. "I like dogs too, but let's be sensible. Dogs don't really think."

IF COKEY doesn't think, how can she remember? Scarcely a thing that we have told this six-months puppy to do or not to do had to be told her a second time. But it is the inventions of her own to please us that are the most amazing. Cute tricks we planned to teach her, once out of her puppy days, she already is doing on her own. She's way ahead of us.

If she doesn't think, how come that Anna can take her shopping, leave her alone on a store show case, even amid fragile bric-a-brac, and watch people march up and try to buy her for a stuffed dog? She's an actor—a clown.

How come that never having had a choke leash on her neck, she will stroll by our sides for blocks, never half a head in front of us, exactly at our sides? A six-months rollicking puppy.

How come that, told once to keep away from an elaborate Christmas fireplace scene, she never again went near it, nor could she be lured to it?

How come that we have never heard her bark two dozen times, feared once that she couldn't bark; yet when she does it is to tell us that we have crossed our signals and confused her?

HERE IS an almost unbelievable routine that Cokey has followed from the first week we brought her home —and no one taught it to her.

She knows when it's 5 o'clock and if the habits of our house go askew at that hour she looks up Anna and teases her into the pantry.

Once she hears the ice cubes clink, Cokey moves to the sun room and seats herself respectfully in front of the chair which she knows Fanny soon will occupy.

When Anna approaches with the tray, Cokey rises on her hind legs and marches to meet her meal ticket. In fact Anna has her on her hind legs half of the time.

FIRST, COKEY must lick the sweat off the outside of my glass and crunch an ice cube tossed to the floor. That's her cocktail. Then comes her act; on those nimble hind legs, paying for her share of the goodies. After each she resumes her seat, with eyes peeled for the next handout.

"Sure, the poor pup is hungry," you're thinking. Hungry, my eye. Listen; she never begs and no matter how dog-delicious the viands may be, Cokey will not touch them until the family circle is complete and at ease in the sun room.

She has settled for service in a sick room; but one day Anna faked the cocktail scene in the kitchen. Cokey walked away from it in disgust; accepted just one hors d'oeuvre, and carried it to the sun room to eat it.

THERE'S STILL more to the evening routine. When we move to dinner Cokey slips under the table without a word from us, curls up and takes a nap. No matter how long the dinner or how many at the table, we never hear a sound from her until we push back our chairs. Then she comes out, stretches, yawns and joins the party.

Not a single part of this daily ritual was taught to Cokey. Every bit of it is her own invention, and well before she shed her baby teeth, Nobody can tell me that dogs don't think.

I'M GUNNING for the guy who laughs off poodles as lounge lizard toys for grande dames. Cokey is a coal black miniature poodle, an outdoor toughy. She loves the cold, wallows for hours in the snow, and can wear you out at play. From every angle she is satisfying all-dog.

Everybody can't pay for such a wonderful pay by writing about her. Hope she will forgive me.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Real News Newsreel

In his resignation scene Malenkov did everything but sing that "Let Me Go" number. . . . It looks as if his Russian buddies had merely agreed to let him coexist. . . . Well, it was the first time a dictator wrote his resignation with an "under-hot-water" pen.

Charlie Terney, just named N.Y. Investigations Commissioner by Mayor Wagner was Bob's roommate at Yale. . . . Little did they dream when singing "Bulldog, Bulldog," they would one day be tops in the government of the biggest city on earth.

Western Union proposes a four-for-one split and stockholders hope they will get the news officially by singing telegrams.

A thief posing as a patient bound and robbed a New York doctor. (Maybe he was a TV fan who didn't like "Medic.") As the stickup man left do you suppose he said to the doctor "This is nothing serious. Relax, avoid excitement and you'll be okay soon"? Anyhow it proved that a holdup is the one thing a doctor can't cure by prescribing aspirin.

Malenkov went to the opera the night of his resignation. . . . But he would rather have stayed home with a good book and a bodyguard at every door.

From the top floors of the Waldorf-Astoria by night a huge electric "100" shines on a nearby skyscraper. . . . We know a market player who insists the light went to 102½.

Pizza pies are to be sold by slot machines. . . . If you're lucky you get the jackpot which gives you not only the pie but the bicarb and a year's supply of heartburn.

Ruth Gilbert, the "Max" of the Berle program has had a baby girl. . . Tuesday's child, in a manner of speaking . . . And after all those years working for General Motors why not name the baby "G. Emma"?

Peter Pan is to be done on TV, and little did Maude Adams ever think the Barrie character would wind up as a channel swimmer. . . . Mary Martin will get $50,000 for playing the role. . . . (Peter Pandora, as it were.) The video production will cost $300,000, from which we assume Peter will appear on a solid gold wire, merge Never-Never Land with Tinker Bell, Incorporated. . . . Theme question "Do you believe in Fort Knox fairies?"

Things are getting so complicated in Moscow you can't tell the rulers without a program.

Remember away back when you couldn't get a book published and become a front page figure by admitting you were a liar and a double-crosser?

Jackie Gleason is announcing his weight weekly on TV. (A-weigh we go, eh?)

It is significant if the Russian routine has changed so much that a fellow can avoid a purge by saying "Take a letter."

"The Desperate Hours" just opened on Broadway struck ye ed as the most exciting drama in decades. . . . We haven't been so thrilled since boyhood days at Bunnell's Grand Opera House back home watching "Bertha the Beautiful Sewing Machine Model," "Across the Pacific" and "The Great Train Robbery." Here is a thriller about a suburban home and family taken over by killers in a prison break and held helpless and in dire peril. . . . In pleasing contrast to the movie treatment of such subjects the hoodlums are depicted as hoodlums, first to last, with none of the mawkish interludes in which they come in for sympathy and glorification. Joe Hayes who wrote the book, play and movie version will need Fort Knox for his dough. Hollywood plans a superdooper of this one and it will be interesting to see whether it plays it straight so it will fill the potential juvenile criminal with disgust and fear or, in the usual movie pattern, make the punks seem nice boys on the whole, if not delightful and charming. Karl Malden and Nancy Coleman as the terrorized father and mother are wonderful. . . . And Paul Newman, a newcomer, gives the best and most hair-raising portrait of a brutal killer in decades.

Edward R. Murrow will interview Premier Nehru. (On an Abstention-to-Abstention hour?)

Reports given at a meeting of the Marion Union Rescue Mission board Friday night listed help given needy men in January and to date.

Aid last month included 64 meals served to transients and night's lodging to 34, the superintendent, Rev. S. W. Bender, stated. To date in February, 27 meals have been served and night's lodging to 14 transients.

Financial report was given by David Cross, secretary and treasurer. Kenneth C. Connolly presided. Speaker for the chapel service preceding the business session was A. W. Hough, pastor of Oak Knoll Baptist Chapel.

"In his statement Rev. Bender said, "The local rescue mission is thankful for the privilege it has had in serving the community and those in need. We are looking forward to being of even greater service to the needy and a continued asset to the community." He said that the public is urged to take part in the work by directing to the mission any man known to be in need of food, clothing or lodging. Particularly he warned about giving money "which might be used unwisely" by such a person. The mission at 142 N. State St may be contacted in regard to anyone in need of help by calling 2-3263.

Mexicans Develop New Interest, Love of Burro

MEXICO CITY (UP) — Mexican farmers are taking a second look at those cute, fuzzy little burros these days.

Growing popularity of these small beasts of burden as pets in the United States and elsewhere is responsible for the change, the newspaper El Universal reported, adding:

"There has been a complete change in the care given and destiny of these animals. Up to now they were not wanted by cattlemen because they pulled plants out by the roots and destroyed pastures.

"In some states of the republic they were used to make cheap sausage and dried meat.

"The situtaion is changing as farmers find there is a market abroad for baby burros."

Although Panama is the site of the first Spanish colony on the mainland of the New World, some of its territory has not yet been explored.

Home Expert To Give Talk At Meeting

Mrs. Freda C. DeKnight, home service director of the Johnson Publications, will be the guest speaker for a meeting of the Marion Association of University Women Tuesday evening in the YMCA.

A graduate of Dakota Wesleyan University, she attended Columbia University and New York University, and the famous Cordon Bleu Cooking School in Paris. She taught home economics in the high schools in New York and for 10 years had her own catering business. She is the author of a cookbook, "A Date With a Dish."

She joined the Johnson Co. as food editor of Ebony magazine and also edits food, fashion and home economic pages for other magazines published by the company. In great demand as a speaker, she travels around 25,000 miles a year giving lectures and food demonstrations, and travels to Europe and other foreign countries to gather information on foods and fashions. She also is an authority on foreign cooking. Her husband is Rene DeKnight, pianist and arranger for the Delta Rhythm Boys.

The program is at 8 o'clock.

Plastic Auto Bodies Seen in the Offing

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — William Hermonet, technical representative for the Naugatuck Chemical Division of the U. S. Rubber Co., predicts plastic auto bodies soon will be "out of the sand-lot league."

Hermonet told a meeting of the American Society of Engineers that plastic auto bodies "mean higher quality and longer life" and would be in mass production soon because of the "advantages gained" by their use.

Helmonet reported on the Alembic One, the first commercially produced plastic auto body which was produced in California in 1952.

"It has traveled over 50,000 miles under all possible conditions," he said. "It has been baked by desert sun, snow-bound in Toronto, climbed mountains from coast to coast. Today the Alembic One remains in excellent structural condition."

BANDS TOPS

CHICAGO (INS) — A survey of high school instrumental music teachers shows most of them played in dance bands before becoming educators. The American Music conference said the survey disclosed only 32 per cent of the teachers had been part of symphonic organizations.

Lodge Activities

Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Lodge No. 509, held a regular monthly meeeting Wednesday evening at the Central Labor Union Hall.

A film, "Decision for Ohio," sponsored by a special railroad transportation committee, was shown. Members of the Ladies Auxiliary No. 846, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, were guests.

PTA Activities

Robert S. Brown, superintendent of Marion city schools, will be the guest speaker when Oakland PTA meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school. Cub scouts will open the meeting, past presidents will be honored, and Founders Day will be observed.

Tips on Grooming

Almond Eyes-on-a-Slant Feature Patrician Look

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Beauty Editor

The cat's eye look may be the big meow in 1955.

But before you get upset over that almond-shaped eye on-the-slant, consider that it takes quite a while for a fad to catch on. Right now we're taking the patrician look in stride.

THE PATRICIAN LOOK is considered Hollywood glamor of the moment — flawless grooming and gentlewoman breeding. It is the era of the soft wave, the monochromatic makeup — delicately tinted lips, unobtrusively highlighted eyes.

Eye power is fundamental and space between and around the eyes seems to be the trick of emphasizing them. Stray hairs must be removed from between and under the eyebrows (never on top, spoiling the natural arch).

An eyelash curler is a boon to the girl with straight or gently curving lashes. It gives a quick curl to the straightest lashes. New ones are easy to use and have rubber pad refills to make up for those that become soiled or worn.

Lashes are usually lighter at the tip. When the curler is used and mascara is applied, the illusion usually is a luxurious length.

EYEBROWS should be clean, every excess hair removed. A good precision tweezer helps do the job without discomfort. Just cream the eyebrows, remove the little hairs and use a little astringent or warm water and boric acid after lashes have been removed for best results.

Maintain the natural arch of your eyebrow. It is what nature intended for you and will look more youthful, interesting and natural than anything you can design for yourself. It is lucky for girls who want to maintain their individuality that the hairline eyebrow is passe today.

Long lashes aren't necessarily flattering. Sometimes they are straight, shading the eyes and permitting a droopy look. Curling these lashes upward will let in the light emphasizing the brilliance of the eye.

Whenever mascara is used, emphasize the upsweep of the lashes in a graceful way. Don't make it apparent by slopping on the eye coloring. Some girls highlight the upper lid with a little cream or oil.

CLEAN BROW. Remove little hairs all around the eyes except on the arch, to emphasize eye brilliance.

If you use an eyeliner, better practice with it before you venture out of the house. Eyeliners are not easy to use, particularly if the eyes are dark. But your eyes can be made to look larger if the pencil is used properly, stroked on gently in hairlike lines.

Firemen Answer 3 Weekend Calls

Marion firemen made three runs over the weekend, including a fire in the township, an inhalator and an investigation.

At 5:37 p.m. Saturday, firemen from the Central station were called to the home of Mrs. E. H. Raffensperger, 209 S. Prospect St. They discovered a water pipe in the bathroom was leaking, but there was no fire.

At 7:28 p.m., the inhalator was requested by Mrs. Alva Collins, 805 Silver St., for her four-year-old son. Robert Franklin, who was suffering from an acute infected throat. The inhalator was operated five minutes.

The township fire truck was called out at 1:33 p.m. Sunday to the James Smith home on Isel Ave., where an overheated stove had set fire to the siding. Loss was estimated at $25.

Children of Eaton Co. Employes Attend Party

Members of the Boilermakers and Blacksmiths Union Local 1667 at the Eaton Manufacturing Co. presented a movie party for about 400 children of employes at the Marion Theater Saturday morning.

Children of Eaton employes were shown cartoons for two hours.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form under the name of Preparation H.® Ask for it at all drug stores—money back guarantee. *Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Princess Studying Clothing for Tour In Caribbean Area

LONDON (UP) — Princess Margaret's wardrobe for her visit to the Caribbean will feature her favorite shades—rose and pink. But the princess also will wear a lot of cool green for the warm climate.

Queen Elizabeth's younger sister, decked out in a shorter, more informal hair-do, has selected several cottons for the trip. And most of her dresses are along simple lines, with flared rather than full skirts. Some have scooped necklines.

She will travel in figure-hugging coats of light wool. The princess prefers small hats, and her Caribbean group will include the butcher boy beret, one of her favorite styles, copies of which are sweeping Britain. It has a flat band across the hairline and a full snood gathered at the back. Margaret also will take a couple of wide-brimmed coolie straws, one in rose-pink, another in white.

Margaret apparently changed her hair style because of the trip. Long, tightly-arranged curls are hard to manage in warm climates. This fact Margaret learned from her sister, who made a tour of the Commonwealth last year.

The new hairdo is shorter, less curly, and can be brushed into shape easily.

It also makes her look taller—the tiny princess long has sighed over her lack of inches.

"Absolute bliss," Margaret remarked to her personal maid, after the new hair-do.

Word around London is that Margaret would have had her hair cut even shorter, if it weren't for the jewelled diadem she must wear on state occasions and the tiaras which so often are called for at official functions.

The princess' hairdresser left enough hair for a little curl at the back and sides, when it's necessary to support such headpieces.

Strike Threatened By Moulders Union

CINCINNATI (AP)—The AFL Molders and Foundry Workers Union, representing 1,800 men in Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton, today threatened a strike in 22 plants.

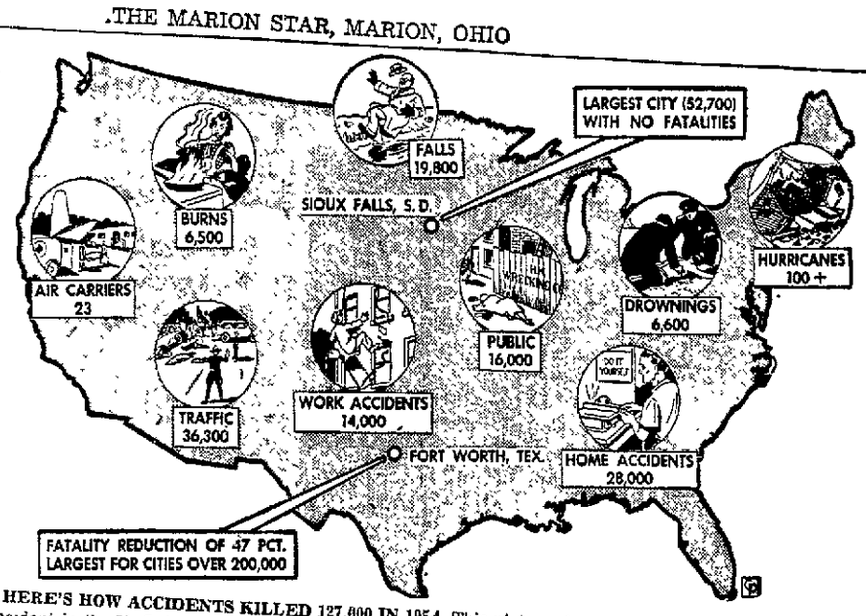
N. B. Smith, union secretary, said "shops will remain closed Tuesday" if no "acceptable" offer was made before midnight.

The union is seeking an hourly wage increase of six cents. The company, said Atty. J. Mack Swigert, has agreed to four cents. Swigert represents the Miami Valley Foundrymen's Assn.

Molders earn about $2.04 an hour, foundrymen 2.10 and laborers 1.50-1.60.

CARDS FIRST

NEW YORK (INS) — Playing cards rank among the oldest printed matter on earth. Block-printed playing cards were in use all over Europe by 1400, more than a half century before the Gutenberg Bible was printed.



HERE'S HOW ACCIDENTS KILLED 127,000 IN 1954. This picture-chart shows how the 127,000 deaths by accident in the U. S. in 1954 were divided, according to National Safety Council figures. The total is lowest on record, and first downward trend since World War II. Domestic air carrier deaths numbered 0.09 per 100,000,000 passenger miles.

Month-Long Campaign

Methodists Make Plans For Evangelistic Effort

Methodists from Marion and the county were among a large attendance from throughout Lima District yesterday at Ada receiving an outline of activity for the month - long evangelism effort which will culminate with "four nights for God," March 7-11.

Keynote of the Ada "kickoff" rally and the ensuing mission was sounded by Rev. C. Lloyd Daugherty Jr. of the denomination's General Board of Evangelism at Nashville, Tenn. He has the responsibility of the department of local church evangelism.

ANSWER TO the universal question, "Is there any hope?" for the saving of man individually and for the saving of civilization depends on Christian practice of humility, a rare thing in rich and powerful America, and in prayer, he said. He quoted leaders in secular fields as calling on America to become a "radiant" center of religion, which once accomplished will cause all other problems of the world to fall into proper place.

American democracy deserves to be saved only if it sees that justice is done all other peoples, giving them an opportunity to rise to equal place in the family of God, he maintained. Pointing to the "grass roots movement" which is a revival of interest in religion demonstrated by the subject's appearance more and more in the secular press, he called on the church to turn from its "wicked ways" to intolerance, prejudice and self-righteousness, to humbly "seek the face of God," to put Christ first instead of self and "make America more Christian."

DISTRICT LAY leader, J. E. Simpson of Forest, presided and prayer was by Bernard Brooks of Marion, lay leader of Prospect Street Methodist Church, Rev. Harold F. Kellogg, district superintendent, presented "The District Mission" to the audience. The speaker was introduced by the district evangelism chairman, Rev. Ray C. Dotson of Wapakoneta. Rev. E. F. Eshelman is pastor of Ada First Methodist Church which was host church yesterday.

Noon each day, Feb. 13-March 13, is set as hour for daily "flash prayers" for the mission with intercessory prayer by each individual for those on his own prayer list. For the two Sundays of the mission, Feb. 20 and 27, brief messages are to be presented by lay workers, with a prayer vigil on the latter date throughout the day.

TEAMS TO visit homes of the unchurched will receive instruction in designated periods of preparation climaxed with a consecration service for all pastors and visitation workers of the district March 6 at First Methodist Church in Kenton. District Youth Fellowship annual Lenten service will be that night.

The visitation evangelism effort will be carried out district-wide March 7-11, with five mass meetings scheduled, including the Marion session March 10 at Wesley Methodist Church with Rev. Daugherty preaching.

March 13 will be observed in each church as "Victory Day" to be followed up by periods of instruction for new members. Marion is represented on the district evangelism committee of 12 members by Rev. W. L. Stafford of Wesley Church.

The annual increase in the population of the United States has exceeded 2½ million for the last eight years.

Advertising helped make the difference

AN EXCITING VIEW of the Grand Canyon was the high spot of the evening with an old-fashioned stereopticon. Today, the scene from our living room has been widened enormously. The whole world is on display. The magic of radio and television brings news and entertainment to millions of Americans.

But to mass produce millions of radios and television sets, manufacturers must be able to sell them by the millions. Only by advertising can a manufacturer talk to millions of people at the same time.

ADVERTISING TELLS the story of newer radios and television sets . . . and helps sell them. The more it sells, the more must be made — keeping the production lines and the jobs going. The result: newer, better sets at prices more people can afford to pay. Advertising helped make the difference — in radio and television, and in our American way of life.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORY of my daughter and our mother, Garnet May Akers, who passed away one year ago Feb. 14, 1954.
She did not know when leaving home,
She would no more return;
That in death she soon would sleep,
And leave us here to mourn.
Today as we look at your picture,
So loving, tender and true,
No wonder our hearts are broken
Dear 'Garnet' we are always thinking of you.
Sadly missed by
Mother, Mrs. Elva Abrams,
Children Don, Dave, Cynthia and Wanda,
Sisters Maridel and Rose,
Brother, Chet.

Five Persons Hurt in Crash East of Marion

Automobiles Collide At Intersection of Routes 95 and 746

Five persons were injured in one of the two accidents investigated in Marion County over the weekend by state highway patrolmen. Marion police reported two persons slightly injured in 16 accidents in the city.

H. E. Brady, 43, of 537 Mound St., sustained lacerations of the left leg and a bruised head when the car he was driving east on Route 95 collided with a southbound vehicle on Route 746 driven by Glenn R. Foos, 28, of 224½ Superior St. The accident occurred at 2:45 p.m. Sunday about nine miles east of Marion.

4 Passengers Hurt

Four passengers in the Brady car also were injured. They were Brady's wife, Esther, and their 11-year-old twin daughters, Marlene and Arlene, who sustained lacerations of legs, and Mrs. Mary Evans of 238 Chase St., who sustained lacerations and bruises of the legs.

The five injured persons were treated at Marion General Hospital and released. They were taken to the hospital by a passing motorist.

The Brady car was knocked into the southeast corner of the intersection by the impact of the collision. It struck a state route marker sign and damaged about 16 feet of fence owned by Ward Crum of near Marion.

The front end of the Brady car and the right side of the Foos car were heavily damaged, patrolmen said. Both vehicles were removed by wreckers.

Foos was cited to appear Saturday before Municipal Judge W. Dexter Hazen on a charge of failing to yield the right of way.

Second Acciden;

No one was injured in the second accident investigated by patrolmen Sunday afternoon. It occurred on Marion County Road 195 about three miles east of Route 98 and one mile north of Caledonia, at 2:08 p.m.

An eastbound car driven by Charles W. Seckel, 65, of Caledonia, and a westbound car driven by Doris Lou Smith of near Caledonia, sideswiped at a one-way bridge. The impact knocked the Smith car into the guard rail, patrolmen said.

No one was injured. Seckel was given a citation to appear before Judge Hazen on a left of center charge.

2 Injured in Collision

Two persons were injured slightly in one of 16 minor traffic accidents investigated over the weekend by Marion police.

Hurt in a collision at W. Columbia St. and Blaine Ave. at 2:08 p.m. Saturday was Mrs. Harell Thomason of 138 Park Blvd. and her 2-year-old daughter, Judith Lee.

Mrs. Thomason suffered a slight head injury and her daughter suffered a facial injury, for which she was treated at General Hospital. Mrs. Thomason needed no hospital treatment.

Police said she was driving south on Blaine Ave. and her car and one driven by D. J. Foley, 17, of 443 Milburn Ave. collided. Mrs. Thomason was cited on a charge of failure to yield the right of way.

A car driven by Loren E. Cunningham, 19, of 194 Elm St. crashed into a utility pole on E. George St. at 7:14 p.m. Saturday. He told police he attempted to miss another car which had skidded crosswise in the street and lost control of his car. He was not hurt, police said.

A truck driven by M. L. Foster, 26, of Springfield skidded into the rear of a car driven by G. A. Glinn, 25, of 5 Veterans Housing at Mill and N. Main St. at 5:20 a.m. Saturday.

Cars driven by Kenneth O. Thome, 48, of 607 Oak St. and Thomas A. Hitt, 34, of 544 E. George St. collided in the 300 block on Chestnut St. at 6:55 p.m. Saturday.

A collision at S. Prospect and Superior Sts. at 2:25 p.m. Saturday involved cars driven by Gene L. McCafferty, 17, of near Richwood and Alfred Clifford, 29, of 634 Lee St.

Each of the remaining 11 collisions involved less than $100 damage and details were not reported.

Republicans Gather To Hear Arends

MANY DISTRICT AND STATE GOP officials gathered with local Republicans here Saturday night to hear a Lincoln Day address by Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, Republican "whip" in the House of Representatives. Included among those at the speakers' table were (left to right) C. William O'Neill, attorney general of Ohio; J. E. Simpson, state senator from this district; Arends; Dr. Philip Smith, master of ceremonies; Jackson E. Betts, eighth District representative, and John V. Ruth, city engineer and general chairman for the dinner.

Twelve Youths Questioned in Wave of Thefts

Twelve 16 and 17-year-old Marion boys are being questioned by police in the investigation of a series of petty thefts, Police Chief Thomas B. Coon said.

Some of the youths have admitted thefts of gasoline from the Rex Welding Shop on Route 30-S east of the city limits, others have admitted shoplifting of clothing from various places in the city, and some have admitted thefts of parts from automobiles in the city, Coon said.

The dozen youths were not organized as a "gang," Chief Coon said.

So far no charges have been filed against any of the boys and none is being held in police custody, he indicated. But all have been placed in the custody of their parents, he added.

Indications are that members of the group may have been involved in numerous cases of petty thievery and vandalism over the last few weeks, according to Coon.

Weather

were reported slippery this morning.

The passage of the frigid air brought some spectacular temperature rises, but it left behind two pockets of zero or below weather, according to the Associated Press.

The upper Mississippi Valley has temperatures ranging from 5 above zero to Grantsburg, Wis.'s 6 below. The other zero zone extended from northern Maine to Central Pennsylvania, with readings from zero down to Mt. Washington, N.H.'s 17 below.

Strong southerly winds sent early morning temperatures as high as the 30s in mid-continent, and most of the country had early morning readings in the 20s and 30s. At Miami, however, it was 63 up 22 degrees from yesterday, and southern Texas basked in like temperatures.

Weather Report

Cloudy and milder, some snow and sleet today, changing to rain in south portion by afternoon; high 30-36. Cloudy and not so cold tonight, low 25-29, with some snow and rain mixed. Tuesday some cloudiness and moderate temperature.

objections and agreed by a vote of 9-1 to inscribe the question. Nationalist China abstained.

The council also agreed again, as it did Jan. 31, to consider a Soviet charge of United States aggression against China and a demand for the withdrawal of U.S. forces from Formosa.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. called the Soviet item "a preposterous cold war fraud without the slightest basis of fact."

As soon as the agenda was adopted, New Zealand's Sir Leslie Munro led off the general debate by expressing regret that Red China had rejected a council's invitation to take part in the Formosa discussions.

GROUP TO MEET AT 'Y'

In Saturday's Star, it was incorrectly reported a meeting of the Marion Chapter of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers would be held tonight at Hotel Harding. The meeting will be held at the YMCA.

Republicans

Arends declared, and no more will there be White House "dictation, ridicule of Congress and even an abortive attempt to pack the Supreme Court."

Arends told the audience of Republicans that Eisenhower meets with Congressional leaders every week. He contrasted Ike's conduct in office with that of his immediate predecessors who, he said, "arbitrarily demanded certain measures be passed, without changing a comma; and insisted that every dollar requested be appropriated without question."

Arends contrasted the entrance of this country into the Korean War with the steps taken recently in the Formosan crisis. He said the Constitution was being "revitalized" under a Republican administration.

HE PRAISED the work of the Republicans in reversing the trend of the previous 20 years of the Federal Government seizing more and more power at the expense of the states and local governments.

He said the removal of the "shackles" on American businessmen, workers and farmers has halted the inflation spiral and has resulted in the economy of the country becoming more productive and moving upward to greater heights.

He denounced the Democrats who have tried to ridicule the Republicans for the "necessary adjustments" throughout our entire economy, with certain areas experiencing unemployment hardships after the end of the Korean fighting.

He claimed that the cry of "impending inflation" was raised by the prophets of doom and disaster. He said the "New Deal-Fair Dealers, and the ADAers of the Democratic Party deliberately exaggerated this temporary situation."

ARENDS CHARGED they would, if possible, frighten the country into a depression "simply to serve their own selfish political ends—to get into power and renew their socialization program."

"No prosperity is real that is based on war and inflation," Arends said. He added that the unemployment problem of the 1930's was "never solved until the outbreak of World War II, and yet the New Dealers spent billions upon billions in the so-called 'pump priming' process."

He said the Republican party believes that economic preparedness is the first line of defense and is as important as military preparedness.

HE SAID the Eisenhower administration has reduced the budget of the country by $11 billion in two years and will reduce it even further in the next two years. He said that because of the budget reductions, the taxpayers were given a tax relief amounting to $7,400,000,000, the largest tax cut in the history of the country. More will follow with reduced spending, he added.

He denounced the Democrats who have charged that the tax reductions benefitted only the rich. He also denied the charge that this is a "big business administration." He reminded the audience that there were no reductions of taxes on corporations.

Arends also praised the present administration for its record in discharging employes considered bad security risks. He said the Republicans were not content to let the subversives live within our government.

IN CLOSING, Arends said Lincoln saved the country from self destruction and once again a Republican administration is called upon in a critical period to save the country from destruction.

Throughout his speech Arends compared the principles of Lincoln with those of the present-day Republicans and said they were the same. Among those he itemized were equal rights for all, honesty, integrity, frugality and the principle that the government which governs the least governs the best.

He was introduced by Rep. Jackson Betts, congressman from the Eighth Congressional District. Betts outlined some of Arends' duties as party "whip" and said he had the respect of other members of his party.

Dr. Philip Smith served as toastmaster.

He introduced city officials present including John Davis, safety-service director; Elmer Shaw, auditor; John Ruth, engineer; Harry Cahill, treasurer; and Robert Haldeman and Harold Fralich, councilmen.

—:—

Fire Destroys Barn on Farm North of Forest

FOREST — A barn on the Russell Alt farm, located two and one-half miles northwest of Forest, was destroyed by fire Saturday morning. In addition, damage also resulted to a nearby granary and attached pumphouse. Loss was estimated at approximately $5,000.

The fire started around 10:30 a.m. when Estell Williams, who rents the farm from Alt of Lima, was thawing pipes in the pumphouse with a gasoline-soaked cloth, firemen said.

Since Williams was planning to move the first of March, all the machinery had been removed from the barn the day before.

The Forest Volunteer Fire Department was assisted in fighting the blaze by the Kenton Fire Department. A Forest fireman, Claude Cramer, was injured and was treated by a Forest physician. He sustained burns around the eyes.

President Returns To Capital as Rain Mars Quail Hunt

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was back at the White House today, still nursing a slight cold he developed while hunting quail on the Georgia estate of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

"It's better," Eisenhower said of the cold as he started the return trip from Humphrey's estate at Thomasville, Ga. He said he and his valet John Moaney had treated it without the aid of a physician.

The President returned to Washington last night, 2 hours and 24 minutes after his takeoff from Spence Air Base at Moultrie, Ga. En route to his plane he stopped for a 20-minute visit at Greenwood, the plantation home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hay (Jock) Whitney, of New York.

Eisenhower had been visiting the Humphrey estate since Thursday, and got two quail the first day. But he developed the cold while hunting without any luck in the rain Friday, and spent most of the remainder of the weekend indoors.

Ike, Republican Leaders Study Convention Site

Selection To Be Made Wednesday; Chicago Believed Top Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders discuss with President Eisenhower today a time and place for next year's GOP nominating convention.

Chicago was considered the likely choice, but party members said Philadelphia was still making a strong bid and a last-minute effort was reported from San Francisco.

The actual site selection will be recommended Wednesday by a seven-member subcommittee headed by Hall, which will report Thursday to the Republican National Committee at a meeting here.

Democrats already have chosen Chicago for their convention, and thus have given the Republicans added impetus to make the same selection. Both parties have met in the same city—either Chicago or Philadelphia—for the last three convention years.

Both Chicago and Philadelphia submitted active bids for the convention last month, backed up by offers of $250,000 apiece, and party sources said yesterday San Francisco is planning to match that figure.

Democrats have set a tentative date of Aug. 13 for the start of their convention. This may have to be moved ahead because the names of presidential nominees must be certified for the ballots of some states even before this date. Republicans will face the same problem in picking a date.

In Chicago, the Chicago Tribune said it had learned the Democratic convention probably will open at Chicago's International Amphitheater July 23, and that the announcement of the date would be made at a meeting of party officials today.

The Tribune said, "Democratic leaders were represented as being confident that if their convention is set for July 23, the Republicans could not meet later. Democrats consider they have a strategic advantage in delaying their convention until after the Republican ticket has been nominated and platform adopted."

July 23 Picked By Democrats For '56 Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats today set July 23 as the date for their 1956 convention to open in Chicago unless some states change their laws meantime to permit a later opening date.

National Chairman Paul M. Butler announced that a study of state election statutes showed it would be impractical to hold up the convention until Aug. 13, as tentatively planned earlier. Some states, he explained, require certification of the presidential candidates anywhere from 70 to 90 days before election day.

The national committee said states which would have to change their laws to make an Aug. 13 convention date practical include Massachusetts, South Dakota and Connecticut.

Butler said reaction to the idea of a late convention date and a shorter campaign had been favorable and that he was suggesting to Democratic leaders that they study the possibility of changes in state laws which stand as a barrier to this.

He expressed hope Republican leaders would join with the Democrats in a move to make later conventions possible.

This was the first of perhaps a score of reports on various phases of the federal government which the commission, created in 1953, plans to submit to Congress by May 31. Unlike the predecessor Hoover Commission, this one has authority to propose policy as well as organizational changes.

Its recommendations can be carried out through legislation or through presidential reorganization plans which are subject to veto by Congress.

College Men's Glee Club Will Sing at School

The Miami University Men's Glee Club from Oxford, under the direction of Professor Richard Schilling, will present a concert of sacred and secular music for an assembly program at Harding High School Wednesday, March 2, at 8:45 a.m.

Gary H. Snouffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snouffer of 1171 E. Church St., is the current president of the club and will be appearing with the group in Marion. He is a graduate of Harding and is now a senior in the College of Arts and Science at Miami, where he is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity and president of Alpha Epsilon Rho radio fraternity.

The music program will open with a group of well-known sacred compositions including "O Magnum Mysterium" by Jacob Handl and "Crucifixus" from the "Mass in B Minor" of Bach.

A group of spirituals and folk songs such as "Water Boy" and "My Lord, What a Mornin'" will be included, as well as several fun songs.

There will be a group of excerpts from the Gilbert and Sullivan repetoire featuring "Entrance and March of the Peers" from "Iolanthe" and Finale from "The Gondoliers."

From Verdi's opera, "Rigoletto," the Glee Club will sing "Hush, Come Quietly," and if time permits will conclude with selections from "South Pacific."

The Glee Club will be in Marion on its annual spring tour, leaving the university Feb. 27 and returning March 3 after singing ten concerts throughout the state.

2 Still Missing In Canada After Bomber Crash

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—U.S. and Canadian planes scanned the frozen wastes of northern Saskatchewan today for two crewmen of a U.S. Stratojet bomber which crashed Saturday after exploding 35,000 feet up. Two others have been rescued.

The two survivors, Lt. Col. Kenneth G. McGrew, Yakima, Wash., and Capt. Lester E. Epton, Preakness, N.J., both 33, said they were hurled unconscious from the plane and came to while plummeting earthward. McGrew's parachute was opening as he revived and Epton pulled his ripcord at about 15,000 feet.

They were brought last night to the Canadian air force hospital here, where both were reported in "good condition" despite their ordeal in subzero temperature. Air force officials said Epton, who was marooned in the snow more than 30 hours, suffered frostbitten feet and severely bloodshot eyes.

Both will be flown back today to their Air Force base, March Field, Riverside, Calif.

McGrew, commander of the aircraft, and Epton were both spotted by RCAF rescue planes while about a mile and a half apart Saturday afternoon. Rescue teams were dropped about seven hours after the crash and a Canadian police ski plane picked up McGrew and flew him to The Pas, Man., late Saturday.

When darkness and a snowstorm halted operations, the rescuers set up a survival camp with Epton and spent the night in the bush. The temperature dropped to 15 degrees below zero. A plane picked Epton up yesterday.

Both McGrew and Epton were dressed in regular uniforms with summer cover-alls.

"We had winter gear with us, but we were foolish enough not to wear it," Epton said.

Neither knew what had happened to the other two crew members—Maj. Robert R. Dowdy, 31, San Diego, Calif., and Capt. Thomas L. Pittman, 34, Fabens, Tex.

Police Auction Earns $222 for Pension Fund

A total of some $222 was raised for the police pension and retirement fund in a sale of confiscated and lost and found property held Saturday afternoon at the old city hall.

Police Chief Thomas B. Coon said all the items sold had been unclaimed for more than 90 days.

The sale was held in the old city jail room and was conducted by Clyde Wilson, auctioneer. Items sold included tires, tubes, wheels, clothing, other automobile parts, tools, luggage, guns, a rubber life raft and other items.

Guatemalans Promised Speedier Aid From U.S.

GUATEMALA (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon was reported today to have promised Guatemala speedier U.S. economic aid to help this little republic get on its feet after 10 years of pro-Communist government.

Nixon conferred more than an hour last night with President Carlos Castillo Armas, whose volunteer army toppled the Red-influenced regime of Jacobo Arbenz Guzman last June. Later the two dined together.

A Guatemalan source said Nixon had given the President "most encouraging assurances" that Washington would speed up its aid program to Guatemala.

School Orchestra To Participate in Concert at Findlay

Harding High School's orchestra will participate in an orchestra meeting of the Buckeye Conference Friday at Findlay. Other schools taking part in the gathering will be Elyria, Lorain and Findlay.

The Harding musicians will leave here at noon Friday. Upon their arrival in Findlay, they will have time for rehearsal after which there will be a social hour.

Each school orchestra will present a short concert and the program will close with a combined number. The program is designed to act as an exchange program for the schools participating. It is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. at the Findlay High School and is free to the public.

For their selections the members of the Harding Orchestra will play "Sailors Dance" by Gliere and "The Allegro" from "Symphony No. 12" by Mozart.

In mass formation, the combined orchestras will play the "Three Brothers Overture" by Cimarosa, "Perpetual Motion" by Bohn, "Sunset Soliloquy" by Valters and "An American Rhapsody" by Grossman.

Each of the four conductors will direct the massed bands during one of the numbers.

Assembly

One of the top battles of the session is due to open tomorrow night before the House Commerce and Transportation Committee. It will be on the request of Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, Inc., for the right of eminent domain in obtaining a right of way of more than 100 miles between Lake Erie ports and East Liverpool on the Ohio River.

Riverlake wants to build a giant belt conveyor—called by some the "rubber railroad" — to haul iron ore and limestone from the lake to steel centers in northeastern Ohio and transport coal from the river to lake ports.

Twice before conveyor backers have asked for the right to seize right-of-way property after paying for it. Both times they have been stymied by opposition of Ohio's freight-hauling railroads. The railroads contend a conveyor would not qualify for the right of eminent domain because it would not be a "common carrier" willing to haul any and all types of cargo.

Special Session

The House Highways Committee will hold a special meeting tomorrow afternoon to hear testimony on a bill authorizing immediate appropriation of eight million dollars from the highway bond issue fund voted by the people in 1953. The money would buy rights of way needed to speed up a number of highway projects.

The Senate Civil Service and Retirement Committee will conduct a delayed hearing tomorrow night on a bill to create a judges retirement system.

Nehru

Molotov proposal. He did not elaborate.

The British Foreign Office, in a statement Saturday night, said a conference such as Molotov proposed "does not appear to be representative."

"A conference that did not include both of the two parties most directly concerned (Nationalist as well as Communist China) could not have a useful result," the statement said.

Leaving for a visit to Cairo, Nehru told airport reporters:

"There have to be a great deal of preparation and informal approaches before a formal conference can get under way.

"Rigid and formal approaches lead to rigid and formal answers."

He said his country does not wish to "push herself in" as far as proposals on the Formosa question are concerned.

But "if we can be helpful, we certainly wish to be," he added.

Nehru came to London two weeks ago for the meeting of Commonwealth prime ministers. During his stay the neutralist Indian Premier was busy in behind-the-scene negotiations on the Formosa question.

Officer Cleared In Shooting of New York Boy

NEW YORK (AP)—Things are not always what they seem. The boy is dead. But the circumstances could be seen in different perspectives.

Here is how off-duty rookie Policeman Robert Surrey said he saw the picture:

He had been out with his girl friend, and was taking her home along a Brooklyn street yesterday at 2 a.m. when he heard a loud crash and a woman's terrified screams.

Four youths fled down the sidewalk. Surrey yelled at them to stop. They raced on. He fired three warning shots in the air. They still kept running. He fired twice, aiming at their legs.

One youth, John Sterling, 15, dropped, shot in the abdomen. He died in a hospital.

Later, after the other three youths were caught, their view of the case emerged:

The four Brooklyn boys had been to a "Sweet Sixteen" party given for a girl in their neighborhood. They drank some beer. On the way home, they sang happily in loud voices.

They decided it would be fun to make more racket by tipping over some ash cans. One of them crashed against the window of Mrs. George Burns' basement apartment. She began screaming in fright.

Scared by her outcries, the boys ran. Surrey's shouts scared them even more. They didn't know who fired the shots. They only wanted to get out of there.

Today, the dead boy's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schwartz, called the shooting unjustified. But authorities exonerated Surrey, a probationary patrolman since Jan. 1.

New H-Bomb Tests in Nevada Start Tuesday

LAS VEGAS Nev. (AP) — An improved atomic trigger for America's H-bomb may be the first device tested in the Atomic Energy Commission's new series scheduled to start tomorrow.

The predawn shot, 32nd at the AEC's Nevada test site, will be "a major effort" for the AEC Livermore, Calif., laboratory, which specializes in hydrogen weapons planning.

Reveals Nature

The disclosure was made by Dr. Alvin C. Graves, veteran U. S. nuclear weapons tester, on the eve of Operation Teapot, fifth and most exacting series the AEC has held here in four years.

The opening test also is scheduled to include Army participation. Several hundred troops will take trench positions about 4,000 yards from ground zero.

The device probably will be detonated from one of the AEC's higher towers, in line with the new official concern for radiation fallout in surrounding communities. The higher the atomic fireball, the less dust sucked off the desert floor and less danger of contamination within the immediate area.

Importance Stressed

Despite the smaller nature of the devices to be tested here this time, there is no underestimating their importance. Every test in this series, AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss declared yesterday, has been deemed necessary from the standpoint of our national security.

"Soviet leaders have been boasting in recent days of their rapid progress and their early development of very powerful weapons," Strauss told a news conference. "We have no alternative but to keep our strength at peak levels. The consequences of any other course would imperil our liberty, even our existence."

The initial test, Graves said, would be of interest to all U. S. weapon scientists, but especially those at Livermore.

Federal Grand Jury Launches Ransom Probe

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Globe-Democrat reported today that a dozen or more witnesses are expected to be called in a "full-fledged" federal grand jury investigation into the missing $300,000 Greenlease ransom money.

The newspaper, which did not give the source of its information nor disclose names of the witnesses, said the inquiry is scheduled to begin today.

A federal grand jury at Kansas City investigated the kidnap-slaying case more than a year ago and indicted Louis Shoulders and Elmer Dolan, former St. Louis police officers who broke the case, for perjury.

Both Shoulders and Dolan were convicted on charges they lied to the Kansas City jury about the way they handled suitcases found to contain about half the $600,000 ransom after Carl Austin Hall's arrest in a St. Louis hotel in October 1953. The rest of the money is still missing.

Easy Transition

By George Sokolsky

The Soviet universal state, so masterfully carved out by Stalin, first manifested its intent in the Molotov - Ribbentrop pact, confirmed at Teheran and Yalta, is a union of nations in some areas held together by force, in others by self-interest It is not an alliance or a parliament of countries like the United Nations It possesses the characteristics of a church militant based on the dogmas of Marx and Lenin

SOKOLSKY

The European components of this grouping of nations lie contiguous to Soviet Russian physical power the Asiatic components are still prevailingly within the orbit of the Sinic civilization in which the materialistic and pragmatic philosophic concepts of Confucius continue to influence the minds of the intellectual leadership

THE AGNOSTIC POINT of view of Confucianism may be noted from the following

'When asked by a student how to serve the gods and the spirits Confucius answered 'We have not yet learned how to serve men, how can we serve the gods?' The same inquirer went on to ask about death Confucius said 'We know not what life is how can we know what death is?' . . .'

It is an easy transition from this negative point of view to Marxian atheism and therefore such resistance to Marxism as appears among Christians and Moslems does not appear among intelligent Chinese If they oppose Soviet Russia, it is because a foreign country is controlling their government that thousands of foreign advisers and experts are interfering in their affairs The Chinese Communists are closer to orthodox Marxism in their thinking than many Russians, certainly closer than the young generation of Russians represented by Malenkov

AMERICANS AND Britishers basing their views on China s past have believed that a way could be found to effect a breach between the Chinese Communists and the Kremlin There has never been a substantial reason for believing that that has been possible since 1946

It has not been feasible because Mao Tze tung Chu Teh and Chou En lai are Marxists first They may in time contest the hegemony of the Russian Communist party over all other Communist parties but that is a fight within the party

There is another factor Soviet Russia lies on top of China and can pour military forces into China at the drop of a word The Russians dominate all of Turkestan and Mongolia and can hold Manchuria without much effort If those in control of the Chinese Communist party and government were at this stage to try to free themselves from Russia and from International Marxism if Mao were to become a Titoist the Russians would not only be able to use military force but could stimulate a civil war by subverting generals in control of Chinese armies There is not a chance that Mao or Chu would risk such an eventuality at this moment of Russian strength

THE ELEVATION of Khrushchev to supreme power affects the situation in favor of Red China Whereas Malenkov sought to avoid World War III, Khrushchev may need such a war to justify the retreat from a higher standard of living which Malenkov and Mikoyan advocated Even if it becomes advantageous for the Red Chinese to break with Russia, it could not be done unless the United States and Great Britain were to fight Russia And if that happened would the United States and Great Britain if they won such a war keep the Chinese Communists in power?

There is no compelling necessity to justify such a gamble and it is not likely that it will be considered seriously as a result of the changes which are taking place in Russia

FROM THE CHINESE standpoint the change is beneficial for two reasons

1 Khrushchev is tougher than Malenkov He will annoy the Western Powers more He might even divert their attention from Asia to Germany He will support Red China to the hilt on the Formosa issue Molotov s speech represents the new policy of toughness and even aggression

2 Khrushchev s emphasis on capital goods and armaments helps Peking which feared the emphasis on consumer goods gaiety and freedom during the Malenkov regime

The Chinese Communists are not ready to imitate such a program and while conditions in the two countries are different the policies are synchronized as far as they can It is bad public relations in China to talk about a rising standard of living It is preferable to preach hate

New Political Force

By Victor Riesel

Red haired Walter Reuther was a reluctant bridegroom in the marriage of the AFL and CIO

Right up to the last minute he did not want to preside over the dissolution of the CIO s empire He raised so many objections inside the small CIO policy-making bull sessions that one of his colleagues said good - naturedly, "Walter has a problem for every solution

VICTOR RIESEL

As recently as Saturday, Feb 5 Reuther left some 75 of his own Auto Union aides with the impression that he was flying tourist rate to Miami Beach to negotiate with the AFL, but that he had little hope for labor unity This he said at the Detroit session of the United Auto Workers Steering Committee, responsible for arranging the union s March convention in Cleveland.

Reuther unburdened himself of a sharp, heartfelt talk on racketeers inside labor and said he wouldn t join the same federation into which they had infiltrated He also said that the AFL would not guarantee not to dismember CIO unions

But Reuther had no choice He was faced with an ultimatum from his own CIO colleeagues who, while not as dramatic as the red-head, can be 'ots tougher when they want to be Rether was told that CIO was merging with the AFL If he refused to go along he could exercise his right to stay out — but the rest of the CIO was going into the AFL and take leadership from George Meany

THIS IN EFFECT, is what the soft-spoken Jack Potofsky head of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union told Walter This is what the disarmingly good humored, but pile driving Emil Rieve of the Textile Workers Union said They were fully supported by CIO counsel Arthur Goldberg

They said it last week

In what they said and how they said it lies much of the political significance of the merger and creation of the world s largest and wealthiest labor federation

Potofsky and Rieve are of the brand of men who helped launch the New Deal and its leader Franklin D Roosevelt Potofsky s union the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, was led by the late Sidney Hillman in those days It has always lived in the tradition and policies of Roosevelt and Hillman

To these men there was no reason for the continued split in labor ranks They see eye to eye with George Meany, David Dubinsky A Scot Milne, Joe Keenan and Bill Schnitzer

POTOFSKY AND RIEVE have always been labor s political pace setters and they know the value of a united labor movement in political campaigns Their bloc is the power inside CIO It was this bloc which gave Reuther the CIO presidency It was this bloc which decided that CIO had nothing to gain outside the AFL

It was this bloc which made the decision Now it is ready to work with the Meany-Dubinsky-Al Hayes (Machinists) - New Deal group inside the AFL This combination will push the new labor federation deeper into national and local politics

It will first wait for the merging or coordination of the AFL s Labor League for Political Education (LLPE) and the CIO s Political Action Committee (PAC) Then it will launch political drives to match the drives on the unionizing front

There is no doubt that these political activities will be virtually merged with the Democratic Party everywhere In many states this labor machine will in effect supplant the old Democratic leaders themselves

THE REMAINING Republicans inside the new labor coalition will be outvoted by the New Deal group on the federation's new executive council of 27 For, not only will virtually all of the incoming CIOers vote as a bloc but they will have the support of the national officers of the merged outfit

In turn the Democratic Party will need to yield far more to the leaders of labor than they ever have before There no longer will be the chance to play one labor leader or one labor federation, off against another

Labor will come to the 1956 Democratic nominating convention speaking in the name of 15 000 000 with perhaps 17 000 000 unionized workers — with all that they can contribute in money and manpower to a campaign

Sooner or later one of labor's leaders will find himself on the national ticket

The merger has catapulted politics into a new era too

Secretary's Valentine

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Leafing through his morning mail, Hamilton Penfield Potts IV, president of the Acme Tiddlywinks Co , came across a sealed missive at the bottom of the pile

HAL BOYLE

Opening it he found a card inside It bore a drawing of a businessman with a halo around his head sitting on a heart-shaped throne—and the message 'Happy Valentine Boss!'

The card was signed— 'From your girl Monday through Friday, Amelia Dobbs"

Potts chuckled and rang for his secretary

Miss Dobbs, plain, dumpy middle-aged, entered immediately notebook in hand, ready for dictation

'Well, first of all Miss Dobbs I want to thank you for your card—it was real cute," said Potts "By the way will you phone the florist and have him send my wife some flowers? I forgot this was Valentine s Day"

"Yes, Mr Potts" said Amelia "I had almost forgotten too But I got a card to remind me—and it wasn t very cute"

"What do you mean?"

MISS DOBBS took a card from her suit pocket and handed it to him

The card showed a cartoon of a scrawny, untidy, elderly woman with big horn-rimmed glasses pecking at a typewriter Underneath was this verse

"You may be awfully efficient
'But to call a spade a spade
'It s also true Miss Smarty,
"You re a dull old maid'"

'Why, who sent you this?' demanded Potts angrily.

'It isn t signed'

'But such a cruel, unjust thing to say"

Oh I guess there s some truth to it Mr Potts said Amelia "after all, I've been here 22 years and—'

'Not that long"

"Oh, yes sir I went to work for your father —both involuntarily looked at the wall where hung a portrait of frowning three-chinned Hamilton Penfield Potts III— During your senior year at Harvard'

Afraid his secretary might burst into tears Potts rose hurriedly and said, Never mind the dictation now Miss Dobbs We'll do it later'

Amelia her eyes downcast crumpled her Valentine back into her pocket and left silently An hour later her employer stuck his head through the door and said crisply

"I m having a conference at lunch today and may need you to take notes Can you come?'

'Yes, sir'

WHEN THE WAITER steered them to a table three vice presidents of the firm already were seated there

Potts opened a box by his plate handed her an over size purple orchid and said

'Surprise, Amelia! The party s for you'

Each vice president also had a valentine present for her—a $25 gift certificate, a dozen roses, a five-pound box of candy

After a wonderful meal Potts fueled by two Martinis made a speech praising Miss Dobbs for her long and faithful service and wound it up

"You ll see a little better sign of our appreciation on your next paycheck Amelia If our competitors had any sense, they d have tried to hire you away from us long ago'

The four men then kissed her in turn And none of those lightly husbandly pecks on the cheek either Mr Potts, who knew a thing or two about women had issued stern orders in advance to his vice presidents on that point

"This is the happiest Valentine Day of my whole life' said Amelia her eyes swimming And indeed it had been

She went home then, because Potts insisted she take the afternoon off

That evening when Amelia s roommate Evelyn, returned from work she found Miss Dobbs sprawled comfortably on a sofa munching a chocolate

'What d you do, rob a candy store?' she asked

Miss Dobbs gaily told her the whole happy story, then showed her the mean cartoon that had started it all

Who do you think sent it to you?" Evelyn asked

Who sent it to me?" replied Amelia "Why I sent it to myself of course you silly goose"

Alarmed Jet Observer Ejects Self Through Plane's Canopy

SIOUX FALLS S D (AP)—An Air Force radar observer ejected himself from a jet plane yesterday — right smack through the heavy plastic canopy

Second Lt Myron Farb of St Louis Mo , suffered a broken leg He explained from his hospital bed that he abandoned ship because he couldn t contact the pilot and feared something had happened to him

"I thought this was it and I was going to get out, but fast" Farb said

The pilot Capt John Meyer didn t even know Farb was missing until he landed at Sioux Falls later and saw the hole in the canopy Meyer said the craft s intercom system apparently had conked out for a moment while Farb was trying to contact him

Farb said he had been doing routine radar observation in the F94 near Canton S D and that Meyer of the 175th Fighter Interceptor Squadron South Dakota Air National Guard had been flying at about 30 000 feet

Farb became alarmed when he noticed the ship was flying at about 1 500 feet He felt that the speed was too fast for such a low altitude From his position near the rear of the plane he couldn t see the pilot He tried to check with Meyer by intercom but got no reply

His crash helmet was punctured and dented as the ejection equipment shot him through the three-eighth-inch plastic He parachuted into a grove of willow trees and farmers helped him out

Texan Claims Bomb Killing Motive Money

DALLAS (AP)—A wealthy Texas architect whose wife was killed by a car-bomb says "money, money and more money' was the motive and 'I was the one they were trying to get"

Harry E Weaver, 60, talked freely but nervously yesterday on an airline flight from San Angelo to Dallas

His attractive, socially prominent wife Helen, 51, got into her husband s car last Jan 19, turned the key to start it and died when a bomb hidden under the hood exploded It happened in San Angelo, their home

Their former son-in law Harry L Washburn, 38, of Houston and Andrew H Nelson 45 a jail-breaking ex-convict were indicted for murder Saturday by a grand jury at San Angelo The indictments alleged the bomb trap was set for Weaver not his wife The panel named Nelson as an accomplice who showed Washburn how to rig a dynamite bomb to the electrical system of a car Both are held at San Angelo

Weaver a stout well-dressed man was en route yesterday to San Francisco to continue his work as a nonsalaried civilian consultant for the Navy public works program

"I've got to find something to do to keep from thinking what happened to Momma," he told The Associated Press "I guess I haven t gotten more than three or four hours of sleep a night since this thing happened'

No gasoline-no, not a single one-has higher octane than
New 1955 GULF NO-NOX

This lamp is burning the "DIRTY-BURNING TAIL-END" of gasoline which GULF refines out
This lamp is burning NEW SUPER-REFINED GULF NO-NOX, the clean-burning super-fuel

This lamp test shows what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—at the refinery—to bring you new NO-NOX.

That's why new Super-Refined Gulf No-Nox is specially made to burn clean—to protect your engine—to give you thousands of extra miles of full engine power.

Fill up with new NO-NOX and feel the difference in lasting power. You'll get:
• More complete protection than with so-called "miracle-additive" gasolines.
• Extra gas mileage in the short-trip, stop-and-go driving motorists do most.
• Stall-proof smoothness . . . instant starts . . . fast, fuel-saving warm-up.
• No knock, no pre-ignition—even in today's high-compression engines.

This is GULF'S PLEDGE to the motoring public
• We at Gulf make this promise to America's motorists. We will not permit a single competitor—no, not a single one—to offer a gasoline superior to our own superb No-Nox.
• It is our sincere belief that No-Nox is the finest gasoline on the market today, and no matter what others do or say we will keep it the finest—in power, in performance, in engine protection.
• This is not a boast, not a claim. It is a pledge to you, the motoring public—a pledge backed by the resources—and the integrity—of the Gulf Refining Company.

Kenton Faces One Contest in May 3 Primary

KENTON — Only one inter-party contest, that for the office of mayor, is indicated for the May 3 primary in Kenton.

On the Republican ticket Carl E. Gardner and Theodore E. Gray have filed for mayor. The Democrats filed a complete slate of candidates while the Republicans failed to file for one position, the office of solicitor.

Other petitions filed on the GOP ticket are: Lloyd B Kelly for president of Council; Mondo Baldwin, auditor; Mrs. Virginia G. Hatcher, treasurer; councilmen at-large, Dudley H. Ralston Jr., Walter F. Johnson and Chester R. Wright.

Filing for Ward councilman are: Gordon G. Karrick, First Ward; F. Richard Taylor, Second Ward; Jay Eddy, Third Ward and Lovell D. Winters, Fourth Ward.

Since a Democratic primary will not be necessary this year, the following Democrats, including four incumbents, will be running for city offices in the November elections:

John P. Cook (present city auditor), mayor, Russell D. Pfeiffer, president of Council; Robert A. Hart (present city treasurer), auditor; Phillip B. Davis, treasurer; Attorney Alfred F. Brindley, city solicitor (inc.), councilmen-at-large, William Breidenbauch (inc.), Richard Hommel (inc.), and James Todd.

Ward councilmen candidates are: Ray Thompson, First Ward; (inc), Lloyd Morrison, Third Ward; Ira Musgrave, Fourth Ward (inc.).

PAUL E. HENSEL
Will Address Club Tuesday

Central Soya Co. Vice President on Rotary's Program

Paul E. Hensel, vice president of personnel administration of the Central Soya Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., will speak at the Marion Rotary Club Tuesday.

He has talked to many audiences on the challenging opportunities that lie ahead for American Youth. The basic thought of this talk is: "people raised in a free country, nourished mentally by free schools and a free press, gainfully employed in free enterprise, and strengthened morally by the religion of their choice are better able to develop the country in which they live."

The speaker has a broad background for his subject, having been on the University of Michigan coaching staff, as well as coaching in Illinois high schools. He has a degree in industrial psychology from the University of Iowa, and is president of the American Society for Personnel Administration.

McMillen Feed Mills of Marion is a subsidiary of Central Soya Co.

UNITED

Men's Night was observed when United Grange met Tuesday night at the Claridon school.

During the program, a mock wedding was held with F. D. Lawrence, Gene Slagel, Earl Seckel, Stanley Lawrence, Leslie Clary, Luther Mitchell, Merle Lashey, Ralph Herr, Dale Lawrence, Richard Lawrence and Russell Wickersham taking part.

A Valentine contest was won by Ralph Herr and John Ruth presented a talk on farm ponds. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Ralph Bauer, Bill Haley, Bill Earl and Lindy Earl.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 21, in place of the usual Tuesday night and a box social sponsored by the youth committee will be held.

a-wanting to meet you...and gr-r-eet you!

For a fascinating bit of auld Scotland, come meet Scotty MacLeod... who's here on a visit to show us how they make those bonnie tweeds back in the auld country. Come watch him spin a yarn — Shepherd Homespun yarn, that is — and then weave it into a wonderful tweed fabric right before your eyes. With his kilt and tartan, and with a burr as thick as the wool on sheep, Scotty will be at his antique loom for 4 days only, starting Tuesday, February 15th, so plan to come see him soon.

We've got something else for you to see — the new Firth carpet, HIGHLAND TWEED, made from wool yarns Firth has created to look and feel like the old Shepherd Homespuns and woven with the rich texture of Scottish tweeds. Scotty will show you how Firth makes the Shepherd Homespun yarns, dyes them in authentic Highland colors and weaves them into a fine carpet that will wear like tweed, too.

4 Games Slated in Opening Session of Tournament

Caledonia, Waldo To Collide In First Game at 5:30 P.M.

Marion County's 1955 basketball tournament opens tonight on the Marion Veterans Memorial Coliseum floor with LaRue, Caledonia, Prospect and Claridon, the four seeded teams, favored to post opening round wins.

Caledonia's league co-champions have the opportunity to register the tourney's initial win when they step onto the floor against Waldo in the 5:30 p.m. opener.

In the three following contest, Prospect is paired with Pleasant at 6:45. LaRue's co-champs go against Meeker at 8, and Claridon opposes Martel at 9:15.

In league competition during the past season, LaRue won over Meeker 42-24, Claridon routed Martel 80-45, Prospect rolled past Pleasant 79-54 and Caledonia whipped Waldo 73-61 in the most recent game.

PLEASANT posted the best mark in league play among the seeded squads' opponents, finishing with a 6-4 mark and capturing fifth spot in the county league race. Meeker, downed by the Pandas in the final loop session Friday night, went 5-5 in league warfare. Waldo had a 2-8 league mark, two steps ahead of last-place Martel, 0-10.

Following tonight's tournament action, play will resume Thursday night with Green Camp and Morral seeing their first tourney action. Green Camp will meet the winner of tonight's Caledonia-Waldo scrap while Morral is slated to challenge either Prospect or Pleasant. New Bloomington, which also has a bye, waits until Saturday night for its first tourney test. It will take on the winner of tonight's LaRue-Meeker tilt.

Semi-final play in the winners' bracket will be run off Tuesday night, Feb. 22, while championship and consolation tilts are scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 26, following a tourney session Thursday night, Feb. 24.

Final county league standings showed LaRue and Caledonia sharing the loop tilts with 8-1 marks, Prospect and Claridon in the runner-up spot with 7-2 records, and Pleasant at 6-4, Meeker 5-5, Morral and Green Camp, both 3-7, New Bloomington and Waldo, both 2-8, and Martel, 0-10.

Charles, Olson Fights Will Top Boxing Events

By The Associated Press

Middleweight Champion Bobo Olson faces Ralph (Tiger) Jones, upset winner over Sugar Ray Robinson, in a non-title bout, and ex-champ Ezzard Charles boxes Charley Norkus in a heavyweight match to top the week's boxing program.

The Olson-Jones scrap at Chicago Wednesday will be Bobo's first of the year after defending his title three times against Kid Gavilan, Rocky Castellani and Pierre Langlois last year. Jones, red hot in Chicago where he upset Sugar Ray despite five straight defeats, hasn't fought since the Robinson bout, Jan. 19.

Charles, beaten twice by Rocky Marciano in June and September, comes back to the ring after a five-month layoff Friday at Madison Square Garden to take on Norkus, a run-of-the-mill heavyweight who spurted to No. 9 position among the challengers by knocking out Charley Powell and whipping Roland LaStarza. Most of the attention will be centered on Charles to see how he reacts from the two beatings by Rocky. At the age of 33, he will be appearing in his one-hundreth fight. Charles in No. 3 in the division.

Hurrican Jackson, ranked eighth among the heavy challengers, comes out of the gym to box one Leo (Mule) Johnson of Charlotte, N. C., at Sunnyside Gardens in New York Thursday. Jackson hasn't been in action since Nov. 15 when he stopped Keene Simmons.

Gene Fullmer, unbeaten West Jordan, Utah middleweight with 27 straight victories, meets a stern test at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway tonight in slick-boxing Paul Pender of Boston. Fullmer defeated Jackie Labua, Peter Mueller and Marcel Assire in his last three. Pender has won three, including a decision over Ted Olla, since he got out of the Marines.

Cisco Andrade, whose winning streak was snapped by Ralph Dupas at New Orleans, Jan. 1, will be out to start a new string Thursday at Los Angeles against Lauro Salas, former lightweight champ.

Wyandot Tourney Play Set Tuesday

UPPER SANDUSKY — Drawings for the annual Wyandot County Class B basketball tournament were made Saturday at the courthouse here. Salem, Sycamore and McCutchenville were the seeded teams and Marseilles drew a first round bye.

Opening games will be played at Sycamore and Wharton, Tuesday night. Games at Sycamore will be Salem against Wharton and Sycamore against Harpster. The game at Wharton will match McCutchenville and Nevada.

Tournament dates are Feb. 15, 17, 19, 24 and 26. On the first two nights there will be two games at Sycamore and one at Wharton. The championship game will be played in the Seiberling gym on the Heidelberg campus in Tiffin on Thursday, Feb. 24. Place of the wind-up game on Feb. 26 will be decided by the teams scheduled, going to the Sycamore or Wharton floor. A preliminary game that night will be the junior high tourney finals with Sycamore and Mifflin-Kirby as the finalists.

In the final round or regular season play Friday night, Salem, Sycamore and McCutchenville tied for the league championship by winning over second division teams.

Sycamore, the defending champion, claimed a share of the title by winning over Harpster 70-42. McCutchenville had almost as great a margin in defeating Marseilles 69-44 and Salem edged a late rallying Wharton 60-56. Sycamore's Don Hannam was high point with 25.

Final league standings were, Sycamore, Salem and McCutchenville, each 10-2; Wharton 5-7; Marseilles and Nevada, both 3-9 and Harpster 1-11.

Crawford County's Tournament Opens

BUCYRUS — Opening round in the six session Crawford County Class B basketball tournament will be played at Bucyrus High School tonight with three games on tap.

Undefeated New Washington, boasting the state's best Class B record with 21 straight wins, plays in the finale against Whetstone (6-12). The curtain raiser brings together Leesville (4-11) and Sulphur Springs (12-5), last year's tourney champions. Chatfield (7-10) and Tiro (0-14) meet in the second game.

A consolation bracket game between the losers of the Chatfield-Tiro and Whetstone-New Washington contests opens the Thursday night session after which Lykens (15-4) meets North Robinson (10-5) and Holmes-Liberty (9-6) faces the Sulphur Springs-Leesville winner in championship flight tilts.

On Saturday night, the first and third games are consolation contests. Mount Zion (7-11) makes its first tourney appearance in the second game, playing the Chatfield-Tiro winner.

Additional sessions will be held Feb. 21, 24 and 26. Championship bracket semi-finals are set for Feb. 21 and consolation bracket semi-finals on Feb. 24.

Dark Edges Lopez

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Alvin Dark, captain of the New York Giants, defeated Cleveland Indian Manager Al Lopez on the 22nd hole of their championship match here yesterday to cop the 15th annual baseball players golf tournament.

Dark had reached the championship round by defeating Bubba Church of the Chicago Cubs in the morning semi-finals 6 and 5. Lopez won over Medalist John Gray of the Kansas City Athletics 2 and 1.

Epworth Keeps Mark Clear in Church League

Epworth Methodist kept its unbeaten streak going Saturday night at the YMCA in the opening series of games of the second round of Church League play by smothering the Church of the Brethren 61-44. It was Epworth's sixth straight of the season. Calvary, first round runner-up, also got away to a second round victory by dumping Trinity Baptist 54-44 and Rural Salem nipped the First EUB in a thriller 55-54.

Epworth wrapped up its game with the Brethren in the first quarter with a 16-5 early lead which never was threatened throughout the game. The winners outscored their opponents in every period except the final, when the Brethren flipped in 19 points to 17 for Epworth. Merle Daum poured in 27 to pace the first round champs while Don Ballinger led the Brethren with 14.

Bud England duplicated Merle Daum's performance in the scoring department as Calvary rolled to an easy 54-44 victory over Trinity. Off to a 15-9 lead at the first quarter, Calvary continued to widen its margin until the final quarter when Trinity caught fire and knocked seven points off Calvary's fat lead. The losers' rally came far too late in the game to aid its cause. Bob Reiff and Fritz Guy followed England with nine points each while Carl Harbolt with 15 and Bernard Martin with 13 were tops for Trinity.

First EUB blew a 26-21 half time lead to Rural Salem in the final game as the Salem crew came on strong in the third quarter to erase its half time deficit. With the score tied at 40-40 entering the final quarter, both teams traded buckets until late in the game when the winners finally moved to a four-point lead with 50 seconds remaining Johnny Hathaway's push shot from outside narrowed the gap to one bucket. However, Ray Auld of Salem dropped in the second of a two shot foul to give the winners a three-point cushion with 20 seconds remaining. EUB's bucket in the final seconds was one point shy of sending the game into an overtime.

Prexies Outplay Foe for 3 Periods Until Attack Falters

By JOHN SHORT

A spirited, reconstructed Harding High School basketball squad fought Newark's cage quintet off the floor here Saturday night before running out of gas in the last quarter and bowing 50-48.

For the first three periods, the Prexies overshadowed the visitors in all phases of play before faltering in the late stages of the stanza and then collapsing in the finale.

Joe Snouffer pushed Harding off to the right start when he dropped in a pair of free throws after 16 seconds had passed. But Chick Beach connected on a long set shot and then converted two fouls into a 4-2 Newark lead. The team traded goals the rest of the period and Newark finished it with a 13-10 cushion.

Early in the second period, the Prexies began their move. Phil Sykes came off the bench to help spark the drive. He dropped in a fielder from the corner and Bob Messner scored on a hook to give the Prexies a 14-13 lead. Lowell Carlisle then batted in a rebound and a free shot to hike the Harding lead to 17-13.

THE HARDING defense stopped the Newark attack cold during the second period. The Wildcats picked up only six points while Harding was increasing its bulge to 31-19 at the half.

The Prexies protected their 14-point bulge until the midway point of the third period when Newark began its comeback drive. Newark watched Gene Armstrong hike the count to 40-26 with 4:15 to play in the third stanza and then opened its rally.

Chuck Monnett, who finished the game with 16 points, shoved in 14 of his total during the last two quarters. With Monnett and Ron Glover hitting steadily, the visitors cut their deficit to 44-38 at the start of the final period.

Six straight points at the start of the fourth quarter knotted the count at 44-44 before Glover's two shots pushed the 'Cats out front 46-44. Carlisle knotted the count at 46-46 on the only field goal scored by the Prexies during the final eight minutes of play. With 2:20 remaining, Ted Firstenberger cut the margin to 48-47 but Monnett dropped in the clinching two points from the foul line with seven seconds left. Joe Snouffer connected on a foul attempt with two seconds left but the Prexies were unable to come down with the rebound for the tieing score.

The win was the 11th of the year for the Wildcats while Harding's record now stands at five wins and 12 losses. Shelby will be at Harding Tuesday night and on Friday, the Prexies will entertain Fremont.

Snouffer was the big gun for Coach Jim Lawler's charges with 13 while Sykes and Messner finished with 11. Monnett's 16 topped Newark while Glover netted 12 and Beach had 11.

Harding finished the game with a 32 per cent shooting average, hitting on 19 of 58 shots from the floor. Newark potted only 14 field goals. However, the Cats

Vejprava Scores Three

Mercurys and Grand Rapids Clown Way to 8-8 Deadlock

Toledo and Grand Rapids battled to an 8-8 deadlock yesterday at the Coliseum before one of the smallest crowds of the exhibition season. The game ended in regulation time since no overtime period is played in International Hockey League exhibitions.

Had either of the teams decided to play it straight it could have registered a win in the closing minutes of the game. However, from the start of the second period, both squads decided to clown it up and the game narrowly missed turning into a farce.

GOALIES Lou Crowdis of Grand Rapids and Roy McMeekin of the Mercurys began the clown act and it soon spread to the rest of the teams. The skaters broke nearly every rule in the book and the officials went along with the act. Only two two-minute penalties were called and those were late in the closing period.

Gordon Vejprava, former member of the Marion Barons, led the Toledo attack picking up three goals for a hat trick. Edwin Panagabko and George Hayes each banged in a pair of scores for the Rockets.

The Mercs jumped into a 2-0 lead in the first seven minutes of play on goals by Billy Mitchell and Gerry Prince, another former Marion star. Hayes scored his first after 15:48 had passed to close the opening period 2-1. After Butch Stahan had upped the Toledo lead to 3-1 Hayes and Roland Spong batted scores past McMeekin to tie the score at 3-3 with six minutes of the second period gone. Panagabko slammed in his first goal at the 10:30 mark to give Grand Rapids a 4-3 edge.

Vejprava's first score tied the count with 13 minutes gone by the boards but Moose Lallo regained the lead for Grand Rapids when his score at the 15:09 mark shoved the score to 5-4. The period ended with that score.

Three quick goals in the early stages of the final period gave the Mercurys a 7-5 edge. Vejprava scored after only 13 seconds and Stan McClellan posted a goal after 2:29 to hike the score to 6-5 and Vic DiMarco boosted it to 7-5 after 6:10.

The Rockets then came back with a three-goal burst of their own. Panagabko narrowed the deficit at 7:18 and Rick Hogg's goal at the 8:20 mark tied the count at 7-7. George Robertson closed the Grand Rapids scoring at the 12.06 mark. His score made the count 8-7 with the Rockets out front. Vejprava completed his hat trick bid with 17:01 gone in the period when he scored the winning goal.

ICY HIGHWAYS delayed the arrival of most of the Grand Rapids skaters and the opening faceoff was held up 25 miutes. The Mercurys went into the game in a weakened condition. The Toledo team last week was booked in four IHL games in five nights and Friday morning were involved in an auto mishap near Lima. Coach Doug McCaig is still confined at St. Rita's Hospital in Lima and Gaff Turner and Mitchell are recovering from cuts and bruises suffered in the crash. Hal Jones, Ex-Baron also with the Mercs, was sidelined yesterday with a groin injury.

The game yesterday leaves only one to go on the exhibition schedule at the Coliseum. Troy of the IHL will be matched against the Cleveland Barons in the finale on Tuesday, March 1.

Local Mermen Gain 2-1 Edge In Lima Meets

Coach Warren Foster's YMCA mermen sank Lima's YMCA Saturday in the local pool as they won two of the three divisions.

The intermediate team won 53-20 as it avenged a pair of losses to Lima last year. Senior freestyler Bob Patterson set a new pool mark of 27.1 seconds in the 50-yard freestyle to open the meet. Marion's crack freestyle relay team of Patterson, Fred Jones, Jim Jones and Stan Franks accounted for another pool mark. Other wins for Marion were by Ernie Garee in the breaststroke, Fred Jones in the 200 yard freestyle, backstroker, Jim Forsythe, all for new team records, and by Dick Renn in diving. The combination of Forsythe, Bill Barnes and Ray Tillman made it seven firsts for the locals by copping the medley relay. John Mahoney of the losers was a double winner, setting a pool standard in the century freestyle and taking the individual medley. The win boosted the "Y's" record to five wins and two losses.

Marion's juniors were even more impressive in winning their first meet in four starts as they won every event to sink Lima's futures 52-13. Leading the scoring were Greg Axe and Mickey Bowlin, each with a new team record and two firsts. Two junior pool records were bettered by the locals with backstroker Ed Cooper flashing his best form of the season to win in the good time of 36.7 seconds for one. The medley team of Cooper, Axe and Tom Prichard splashed to another new mark. Wins by diver Bob Rhoads and the top-notch freestyle relay of Bowlin, Rhoads, Paul Emerson and Prichard completed the rout.

Lima's prep team prevented a clean sweep by ending the locals 39-27. With the score tied the Lima team won the relay events to take the decision. Three prep marks were set by the visitors, Schenk in the breaststroke, C. Hunter in the backstroke and Bob Hunter in the individual medley. Bob Finney of Marion took two firsts for the losers with wins in the 50-yard freestyle and diving.

Feature of the meet were the new starting blocks donated to the "Y" by the Franks family. Standing 24 inches high, they provide the best in starting conditions for top-notch performances by swimmers. The Marion team's next engagement is at Lima Saturday. Then it meets Sandusky Junior High School in the local pool on Friday, Feb. 25 at 7 p.m.

Olentangy Clips Cardington To Cinch Cage Title for Irish

LEWIS CENTER — Olentangy High School blasted Cardington's hopes of a Mid Ohio basketball conference title here Saturday night with a convincing 57-43 victory over the Pirates.

Cardington went into the game with a 4-1 league record and was shooting for a share of the crown. The defeat gives Marion St. Mary sole possession of the Mid Ohio Conference cage title. The Irish finished the campaign with a 5-1 mark, bowing only to Mount Gilead.

Next action for Olentangxy will be Tuesday night when it meets Elm Valley in the opener of the Delaware County tourney at Delaware Willis High School. Big Walnut and Scioto Valley will clash in the second game.

The Braves managed only a 13-12 first period edge but rushed to a 30-18 cushion at the half time and at one time in the third stanza were out front by a 17-point spread. They went into the final period with a 40-29 lead.

The Pirates outscored the local quintet from the field 19-16 in field goals, However, Cardington connected on only five of 23 chances at the foul line while Olentangy made good on 25 free throws.

Ike Viers topped the attack for the winners with a 26-point output. Fourteen of his points came at the free throw line. Bradley Cox collected 13 for the winners. Dean Curl shoved in 15 points to top the Pirates and Sellers accounted for 14.

The Cardington reserves copped a 38-36 win in the preliminary game. The winning field goal was in the air at the final whistle.

Mays Collects 4 Safeties In Leading Club to Win

CARACAS, Venezula (AP)—Willie Mays, slugging star for the New York Giants, banged out four hits to lead Puerto Rico to a 7-6 win over Cuba and help clinch at least a share of the Carribean title for his mates.

One of Mays' blows was a triple, driving in two runs. Saturday night he had belted a two-run homer to lead his team to a 4-2 verdict over Venezuela.

Wrestling Evenis Set for Wednesday

Wrestling programs at the Coliseum for the next two weeks have been scheduled on Wednesday nights, Promoter Les Fishbaugh announced today. The shift was brought about due to basketball tourney action slated at the Coliseum.

A triple main event has been slated for Wednesday with all three matches going two out of three falls.

Juanita Coffman and Tersa Theis will collide in the opening match with the Black Panther and Ricky Waldo meeting George Gallagher and Bill Savage in the middle bout, a tag team affair. Herb Schiff and Raymond Perrez will wrestle in a return match. The opening event will get under way at 8:30.

By JOHN CROSBY

Precocious and Prolific

Gore Vidal who was once very aptly described as precocious and prolific, published his first novel "Williwaw" when he was not yet 21 years old He has now reached the ripe old age of 29 and has written eight novels — unless a couple have escaped me — all of them mordant, interesting vividly written, though sometimes a little light-bodied

JOHN CROSBY

He's a very compelling young writer and even a few minutes exposure to his writing in whatever form it happens to take will convince you that you are in the presence of a very gifted, cocksure and slightly morbid mind I don't know how many TV scripts Vidal has written I have seen three—one an adaption of a Faulkner story, the other two originals — and all of them were wonderfully interesting, out of the ordinary and not easily forgotten.

THE LAST OF THESE was a play called "A Sense of Justice" on Philco Playhouse last Sunday This was a rather strange tense drama about a young man, whose wife has just died, who has nothing much to live for and who resolves to travel to a small western town and kill the notoriously evil boss who runs it He has a fanatic conviction that murder—at least, this particular man's murder—will be a useful public service Practically everyone tries and fails to dissuade him

In the end, it is the potential victim who calmly faces the fanatic's revolver and talks him out of the killing It's quite a scene—a murderous mobster arguing that society's organized forces of law and order are better equipped to mete out justice than private citizens, no matter how high-minded It isn't, frankly, a very plausible scene,—but then Vidal writes with such self-confidence that it isn't until later that you begin to wonder

"A SENSE OF JUSTICE" was enormously helped by some splendid performances, notably that of E G. Marshall as the political boss and John Hudson as the young fanatic Producer was Gordon Duff and the director was Bob Mulligan

Another Vidal play was "Dark Possession" which was done a long time ago by 'Studio One"

This was an eerie little business about a Victorian family of three sisters and a father living in New Hampshire all wrapped up in old hatreds and surrounded by vaguely menacing Victorian bibelots and stiff necked furniture

Two of the sisters are getting on in years and seemed to hate each other It seems we gradually find out that both had loved the same man He had married one of them (Geraldine Fitzgerald) and had later died under somewhat suspicious circumstances Also in the house is the girl's father a bitter, contemptuous paralyzed old man who rolls about in a wheelchair and a younger sister who is still relatively untouched by the surrounding bitterness

INTO THIS BALEFUL household there is interjected a note of menace in the form of jeering letters taunting Miss Fitzgerald with having been her husband's murderess The letters are clearly the handiwork of someone in the household since they are found without postmarks on the hall table But who?

The answer as revealed in a harrowing scene at the end is a shocker Miss Fitzgerald is writing the menacing letters to herself She is a schizophrenic with two entirely seperate identities neither of which is aware of what the other is doing

It was the sort of scene that almost any actress would dearly love to get her hands on and Miss Fitzgerald made the most of it In fact she scared me half to death As you can see Mr Vidal's work is not the sort of thing the children ought to wait up to see

THE THREAT of violence a sort of insane violence hangs over all of them many of his characters are possessed by strange devils, indeed, but he is also a writer of unusual talent and authority Any time you see Mr Vidal's name on a screen credit I doubt that you'll be bored

Incidentally the direction by Franklin Schaffner, with its furtive shots by a camera which sneaked around the Victorian house almost like a character in the play was splendid

Will Stick With Lee

George Liberace Has No Plans for Quitting Show

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK, Feb 14 (AP)—Despite his own recent solo performances, George Liberace says he and his piano-playing brother intend to continue as a team

The candelabra king, who uses only the family name Liberace but is called 'Lee" by his family and friends recently took an enforced rest of several weeks to recuperate from overstrain

ADMITTEDLY ANNOYED by speculation that a splitup is in the offing George explains that his own appearances on the George Gobel show, Masquerade Party and other programs were occasioned by his brother's trip to the sidelines

It's true I've had a lot of offers to go out on my own but I don't want to" George declares

The speculation has been heightened by George's recording of a number of his own records for Columbia and his guest appearances on disk jockey shows to plug them But he says there's no such significance in those activities either

"Lee is fine now" said George "We have completed two more television shows and one radio show. The rest did him a world of good and it's well he had it because we have a busy year ahead"

The 1955 schedule will include a Warner Brothers feature movie starring Liberace, due to go into production in May

George was a successful violinist playing with name bands when he decided to team up with his brother in 1947

IT'S BECOMING a habit with Mary Margaret McBride For the third consecutive year the National Assn for Better Radio and Television has given its award for best daytime radio program to Miss McBride, who also writes a column for The Associated Press.

Betty Furness' 15-year-old daughter Barbara will make her TV debut on Best of Broadway on CBS March 2 Barbara will do her bit in the commercial helping Mama open refrigerator doors

Matusow Is Not Book's Author, Walter Claims

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep Walter (D-Pa) says a book detailing allegedly false testimony Harvey Matusow gave against persons accused of Red connections was written by someone other than Matusow

'He didn t write it I know who did ' Walter told an NBC television audience yesterday

But Walter chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee declined to identify the author to newsmen who asked him about it later

It will all be developed and everybody will know all about it shortly he said

Matusow, who testified against a number of people as a former Communist has since signed affidavits that he lied in his testimony both in court trials and before congressional committees. A book about his testimony is scheduled for publication this spring under his name

Publishers of the book in New York could not be reached for comment

Among those against whom Matusow said he testified falsely was Clinton Jencks, an official of the independent Mine Mill and Smelter Workers union who was convicted of falsely swearing to a non-Communist oath

Walter had expressed belief last week that the smelters union may have had a hand in preparing the book

Walter said he is certain that at least some of Matusow s testimony before the House committee was true, but he said he plans to "inquire very carefully into the matters that he testified to and again ask the people whose names were mentioned . . . if they desire to make a statement"

Officials in No Hurry To Get Federal Funds

Harrison County's Commissioners Still Home Rule Advocates

CADIZ, Ohio (AP)—Harrison County has lost its feud with Ohio, but it seems in no hurry to take the $400 a year from the federal government

The regular weekly meeting of the county commissioners is today, but no one expects any definite action this week

The feud was about the combined federal and state program of assistance to the totally and permanently disabled Each year the federal government contributes about three million dollars, the state adds another 1½ million, and some 6,670 disabled Ohioans get financial support

The law says there will be no federal funds unless the state administers the fund under civil service in every county

Of Ohio's 88 counties 87 have made some kind of provision to take part. But for nearly four years Harrison County has balked It is a hilly mining and farming district of less than 20 000 population in eastern Ohio

Most of its elected officers take the stand that they are for "home rule," and call federal aid "a welfare state"

County officials say there are "only a few" eligible disabled persons, who are being cared for out of poor relief funds — some of which come from the state

The estimates range from 8 to 10 or possibly a dozen persons, and the federal funds reaching Harrison County would be around $400 a year, or not much more

The state officials, fearing the federal government finally would withdraw its three-million-dollar support, brought suit against Harrison County and the Ohio Supreme Court on Feb 2 directed the county to fall in line with the other 87 counties

Last week at their regular session the county commissioners took no action, saying they had not received the official court papers from Columbus County Prosecutor Morris O Gibby says he is thinking of asking the Ohio attorney general for an interpretation of the court's ruling.

Years Don't Mean Age to This Couple

MEMPHIS, Tenn (UP) —Robert Baughman is 95, and his wife 92 but don't go calling them an elderly couple

"I don't think anybody is any older than they feel," said Baughman, who added that he doesn't feel in the least bit too old

In fact, said Baughman, he's known in his neighborhood as "The Kid"

The Baughmans qmarried in 1931 Each had been widowed and each had eight children during their first marriages

The Baughmans keep on the go visiting people in their neighborhood who are ill or in trouble

Mrs Baughman had to slow down recently because her arthritis started troubling her. 'The Kid" did the housework until his wife recovered

Now, both are back visiting around in homes to give the "younger" folks the benefit of their combined 187 years of experience

District Church Meetings Open In City Tonight

Opening tonight at First Church of the Nazarene in Marion will be the denomination's Central Ohio District Crusade for Souls conference which is drawing registration of more than 300 pastors and lay delegates from throughout the district This will be the first of three evening rallies and there will be three morning sessions and two afternoon meetings

Secured for the conference here is the leadership of national figures in the denomination the general superintendent from Kansas City Mo headquarters Rev G B Williamson, and district superintendents from the South and East, Rev John L Knight of Florida and Rev Robert I Goslaw of New York

Rev Williamson, one of five men elected to the highest office in the church, the staff of general superintendents has been both a pastor and educator Serving churches 16 years in Iowa Chicago, Ill Cleveland O and Kansas City, he became president in 1936 of Eastern Nazarene College at Wollaston Mass, and held that position nine years, finally resigning to accept another pastorate Elected general superintendent in 1946 he was re elected in 1948 and 1952

While national president of the Nazarene Young People's Society, 1932-1940 he was a delegate to the World Conference of Christian Youth at Amsterdam Holland in 1939 He has traveled extensively both in this country and abroad supervising the home and foreign mission program and in late 1950 and early 1951 traveled around the world as a part of his duties He is author of volumes on training for evangelism and pastoral theology and a biography of the late General Superintendent Roy T Williams among others

Rev Knight residing at Lakeland Fla has been a district superintendent since 1946 In 1932 he accepted his first pastorate in his native Texas and for a time in addition to pastoral duties served as secretary treasurer of the Abilene District becoming in 1939 the district superintendent there He contributes articles to church publications and has three sons in the ministry

Rev. Goslaw was elected New York District superintendent in 1953 and resides at Beacon, N Y Previously, he held pastorates in California served as youth director of Southern California District in 1949 and was Sunday School promotional secretary of the Northern California District two years He is recognized as an outstanding home missions worker and has had the responsibility of building several churches

Time of the service tonight will be 7 30, and Rev Williamson will speak on 'Jesus' Sense of Urgency' The other two leaders will be heard at morning and afternoon sessions.

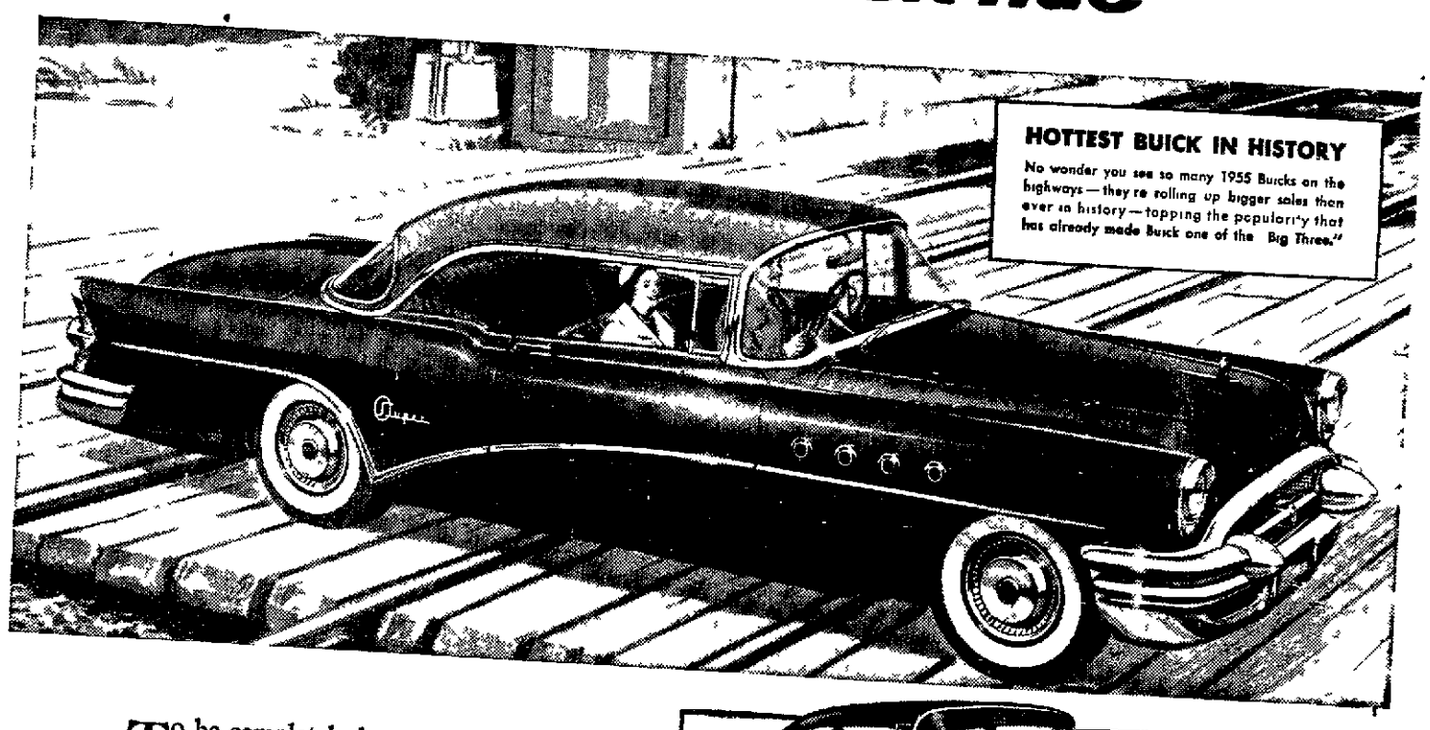
Even the bumps are smoother in the '55 Buick ride



HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the Big Three."

To be completely honest—there are some bumps which nothing will level out completely.

Yet even the real rough ones turn out a lot smoother when you take them in a 1955 Buick.

And that's not just our say-so. New owners of these bright new beauties keep telling us that.

So you may wonder—how come? What's different about the Buick ride that makes it such a marvel?

The answer is—plenty.

Most cars have coil springs on front wheels only. Buick has them all around—and this year they're newly calibrated for even deeper smothering of jounce and jar. So here your ride is balanced, buoyant, level, serenely smooth.

Most cars drive through the rear springs. Buick drives through a torque-tube that takes up all driving thrust, wipes out rear-wheel wiggle and wag, steadies your going to a sure and solid track.

And no other car in all America has these great comfort extras plus the backbone of a massive X-braced frame plus both direct and lever-type shock absorbers to snub after-bounce plus a special front-end geometry to stabilize "cornering" plus tubeless tires on extra-wide rims for softer riding and greater stability.

Surely, you owe it to yourself to try this great Buick travel, just to judge things for yourself.

You'll find it the nearest thing to velvet on wheels—and made even more so by the silkiness of record-high V8 power and the absolute smoothness of Variable Pitch Dynaflow.* Come visit us this week—for sure.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

More Women Accepting Jobs as Police Officers

CHICAGO (UP) — Two more cities have hired women to free policemen from some of their time-consuming duties.

The Civil Service Assembly reports that Wichita Falls Tex. and Sacramento Calif., have hired women for jobs of a public relations nature.

Wichita Falls hired and trained four women in human relations and city geography so that they can answer questions of residents and visitors.

The women also are assigned to the job of handing out parking tickets and checking parking meters.

In Sacramento women have replaced men at the information counter and radio dispatching desk in the police department.
